Andres Chaparro
Station Manager
Telemundo Denver KDEN

Andrés Chaparro has been Station Manager of Telemundo Denver (KDEN) since August 2010. Andrés earned his degree in Marketing and Advertising from Bogotá's prestigious Politécnico Gran Colombiano University and began his career working for an international advertising agency in Bogotá, Colombia. After coming to the U.S., he quickly moved on to opportunities in Spanish language media, working first for Univision TV (Entravision) in Albuquerque. During several years with the Univision and Telemundo stations in the Dallas market and with the Telemundo station in the Chicago market, he built a reputation for thoughtful leadership, integrity, and keen understanding of the Hispanic market.

As Station Manager for Telemundo Denver, Andrés has positively transformed the station and facilitated its mission to help grow Denver businesses while also benefiting the community. In pursuit of these goals and under his leadership, KDEN launched their newscast in HD in October 2010 in partnership with KUSA.

Andrés has also worked diligently to promote health and education in the Metro area's Hispanic population, participating and promoting outreach to raise awareness in the community about key issues affecting them. His commitment to health and education and his deep community involvement resulted in his being asked to sit on several boards. Currently, he serves on the Komen Denver Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure, American Diabetes Association Colorado Leadership (Chair for the Por Tu Familia), and Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro Denver Boards.
