This project serves to improve the health of all Coloradans by implementing the Local Public Health Agency (LPHA) Chronic Disease Framework (Framework), delivered in Denver. The Framework serves as a strategic tool developed by the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment (CDPHE), in partnership with key stakeholders, to support in identifying as well as implementing evidence-based approaches to chronic disease prevention. The project will include capacity-building activities along with evidence-based strategies that provide chronic disease public health services for communities in Denver. During the Capacity Building phase, the DDPHE will participate in foundational activities, including infrastructure development, needs assessment, in conjunction with equity-centered planning. During the Evidence-Based Strategy Implementation phase, guided by its local readiness, DDPHE will develop an implementation plan that identifies specific strategies from the Framework to implement with the support along with oversight from CDPHE.

The goal of the project is to address chronic disease prevention and management through capacity building, planning, and implementation of strategies that reduce chronic disease risk factors. All activities will align with the CDPHE Chronic Disease State Plan as well as the Framework.
