Navin Dimond is the founder of Stonebridge Companies, a privately-owned hospitality firm headquartered in Denver, Colorado. He serves as President and Chief Executive Officer, overseeing the company's development, acquisition and investment functions.

Since its inception in 1991, Mr. Dimond and Stonebridge have been responsible for the development of over 85 hotels encompassing a wide variety of brands in multiple markets. Today the company owns and operates a diverse portfolio of 58 hotels across the United States, with approximately 10,000 rooms.

Navin is the recipient of the Award of Excellence from the American Asian Hotel Owners Association, the Hotelier of the Year Award from the Colorado Hotel and Lodging Association and the prestigious Hilton Hotels Multi-brand Developer of the Year Award. In 2007 Navin received the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of The Year® Award in the Real Estate and Hospitality category for the Rocky Mountain Region. In 2015, Navin and Stonebridge Companies received the coveted Marriott Partnership Circle Award, granted to Franchisees for their excellence and commitment to growth as well as dedication to their associates and guests. More recently, Stonebridge received the esteemed "Spirit to Serve" Award as a result of the companies' robust philanthropic endeavors, volunteerism and commitment to the communities where Stonebridge has a presence.

Because of his expertise and proven track record, Mr. Dimond has served in an advisory role for a wide variety of organizations. Currently, Navin serves on the Franchise Advisory Council for Hampton Inn Hotels by Hilton and Marriott's Residence Inn Advisory Board (TRIA Board). Navin has been involved with the Colorado Hotel and Lodging Association (CH&LA) for many years, serving as Chairman in 2003. In 2008 Navin was inducted into the CH&LA Hall of Fame.

In addition, Navin serves on the Washington State University College of Engineering and Architecture Executive Leadership Board, Cornell University's Dean's Advisory Board for the School of Hotel Administration and the Daniels College of Business Executive Advisory Board at the University of Denver.

Involvement in the local community is important to Navin. Currently he serves on the Board of Trustees for the University of Denver and the Denver Center for the Performing Arts. In addition, Navin serves on the Board of the Denver Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau (VISIT DENVER) and serves on the Foundation Board of the Metropolitan State College of Denver.

In 2014 Rita and Navin Dimond took their commitment to education and the Denver metro community to the next level by providing a generous grant to Metropolitan State College of Denver's Hospitality, Tourism and Events department to support the Hotel Management Program. The Dimond Fellows Program was established commitment to excellence and passion for fostering future hospitality leaders. Fellows are provided with unique professional development opportunities, including a paid internship with the executive teams at Stonebridge hotels for one semester, which counts toward their senior experience.

In 2015 Mr. Dimond was appointed by Governor Hickenlooper to the Colorado Business Experiential-Learning Commission. The Commission's focus is to prepare youth for post-secondary career opportunities. Stonebridge has been an active participant in CareerWise Colorado, a product of the Commission, by providing apprenticeship opportunities at our Denver metro hotels.

Also in 2015, Stonebridge Companies funded the first endowment for the Hospitality & Tourism Management School at West Virginia University as well as establishing an extensive internship program at the Morgantown Marriott at Waterfront Place.

Mr. Dimond is a graduate of Washington State University where he earned his B.A. in Business Administration and his B.S. in Construction Management. He earned his MBA in Real Estate and Construction Management from the University of Denver.
