Jerrold L. Glick

Managing Partner
Columbia Group LLLP

Jerrold L. Glick is the Managing Partner of Columbia Group LLLP, a Denver-based investment company. Columbia Group has developed a number of buildings in Lower Downtown Denver as adaptive re-use projects. Columbia Group is affiliated with Urban Ventures LLC, a developer of urban multi-family projects, student housing, and other residential housing.

In 1997, Mr. Glick co-founded Renal Ventures Inc., a national provider of renal care and infusion services, and continues to serve as an officer and director of that company. Renal Ventures has announced the sale of the company to DaVita Healthcare Partners. He was previously a co-founder and Director of QualiCenters, Inc., which also provided dialysis services. QualiCenters, Inc. was acquired by Fresenius, A.G.

In 1997, Mr. Glick founded and was the Chairman of American Medical Laboratories Inc., a national clinical laboratory company. That company was acquired, built and subsequently sold to Quest Diagnostics, Inc.

Mr. Glick is an investor and a director of Pathology Inc., a clinical laboratory company based in California that specializes in women's health issues. Pathology Inc. was sold to Laboratory Corporation of America (LabCorp) in March 2016.

Until its sale in 2015, Mr. Glick was the Managing Partner of CIG LLC, which, through its subsidiaries, Front Range Aggregates and Rock & Rail, operated aggregate quarries and a short-line railroad in Colorado.

Mr. Glick also served as a Director of Republic Financial Corporation, a Denver-based financial services company, from 1982 through 2005. Mr. Glick founded and is Chairman of Workforce Housing Initiatives, a nonprofit entity that address affordable housing issues in Denver.

Mr. Glick is active in community organizations, currently serving as Chairman of Rose Community Foundation's Board of Trustees. He is a member of the Colorado Forum, was previously the Chairman the Downtown Denver Partnership's Management Committee, Chairman of Denver Civic Ventures, and Chairman of the Denver Urban Renewal Authority. He currently serves as Vice President of the Denver Union Station Project Authority.
