(1) The submission of a written request to a covered official for a revocable permit pursuant to Charter section 3.2.7 or submission of a written request for vacation, easement, or dedication of a public right-of-way; or

(2) Communications made by a person or business for the purpose of marketing, promoting, or selling goods or services, provided that such communication does not include a request for action on a legislative or administrative matter.

(3) Communications made in the course of an official procurement process, including the submission of a bid, proposal, or other response to a publicly advertised solicitation, or any communication otherwise permitted by that process.

~~Sec. 2-306. -- Employment of unregistered person. Reserved.~~

~~No person shall employ for pay or any other consideration or agree to pay any consideration to an individual to engage in lobbying covered officials, unless such individual is a registered lobbyist, or agrees to register in accordance with section 2-302 herein.~~

~~Sec. 2-307. -- Violation of this article. Reserved.~~

~~It shall be unlawful for any person to violate, or fail to comply with, the provisions of this article XIII of chapter 2 of the Revised Municipal Code. It shall also be unlawful to file any document provided for in this article which contains any materially false statement or material omission.~~

~~Sec. 2-308. - Rules and regulations.~~

~~The city clerk may promulgate rules and regulations to define, interpret, implement and enforce the provisions of this article and to prevent the evasion of the requirements of this article. The city clerk shall promulgate rules and regulations to provide for show cause hearings as required herein. In addition to the requirements for adopting rules and regulations established by article VI of chapter 2 of the Revised Municipal Code, the The city clerk shall notify the council by a formal communication whenever a new rule is issued or an existing rule is revised.~~

~~Sec. 2-309. - Powers of the city clerk; complaint procedures; enforcement; and penalties. granting and revoking of certificates; barring from registration; reporting to city attorney for criminal prosecution.~~

~~(a) Reserved.~~

~~(b) On his or her own motion or on the verified complaint of any person, the city clerk shall investigate the activities of any person who is or who has allegedly engaged in lobbying and who may be in violation of any provision of this article.~~

~~(c) The city clerk may apply to the district court of the City and County of Denver for the issuance of an order requiring any person who is believed by the city clerk to be engaging in lobbying~~

~~without having registered as provided in section 2-302, to produce documentary evidence which is relevant or material to a determination of the matter.~~

~~(d) After notice has been given and a hearing held, if the city clerk finds that a violation of this article has occurred, the clerk shall issue a cease and desist order setting forth the provisions that have been violated and the facts underlying the violation and shall:~~

~~(1) Issue a written warning to the person who committed the violation; or~~

~~(2) Revoke, or suspend for a maximum period of twelve (12) months, the certificate of registration required by section 2-302;~~

~~(3) Bar a person from registration for a maximum period of twelve (12) months; or~~

~~(4) Report the violation to the city attorney for consideration of criminal prosecution of the person as provided in sections 2-307 and 1-13 of the Revised Municipal Code.~~

~~(e) The clerk shall notify covered officials within five working days regarding any action taken pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.~~

(a) Complaints, hearing officer procedures, and final determination of complaint.

(1) Citizen complaints. A resident of the city who believes a violation of this article has occurred may file a written complaint with the city clerk no later than sixty (60) days after the date on which the complainant either knew or should have known, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, of the alleged violation. Each complaint shall identify the person alleged to have committed a violation, the date of the violation, the facts giving rise to the violation, the provisions of this article alleged to have been violated, and any other information required by the city clerk. The city clerk shall not accept a complaint that fails to meet the requirements of this subsection.

(2) Response and dismissal. If the complaint meets the requirements of subsection (a)(1), the city clerk shall notify the person alleged to have committed the violation (the "respondent") and order the respondent to file a response within thirty (30) days of such notification. If the complaint is filed by a resident, the city clerk may dismiss the complaint if:

a. The respondent has cured the alleged violation;

b. The respondent has already been issued an administrative citation related to the violation;

c. Based on the information in the complaint and taking the facts stated therein as true, the complainant has not stated a plausible violation of this article; or

d. Based on the information in the complaint and the response, there is sufficient information to find, by a preponderance of evidence, that no violation has been committed.

1 (3) Complaints filed by the city clerk.

2 a. The city clerk is authorized to file a complaint with an administrative hearing
 3 officer appointed pursuant to this section, after providing notice of the violation, if the person alleged
 4 to have committed the violation has failed to cure.

5 b. For any violation of this article other than a reporting violation, the city clerk may 6 issue a notice of violation by mail to the last known address of the person alleged to have violated
 7 this article. The notice shall contain the identity of the person alleged to have committed a violation,
 8 the date of the violation, the facts giving rise to the violation, and the provisions of this article alleged 9 to have been violated. Any person who has received a notice of an alleged violation shall have ten 10 (10) days from the mailing date of the notice to cure the violation. If the person fails to cure the 11 violation, the city clerk shall file a complaint in accordance with this subsection.

12 (4) Appointment and qualifications of hearing officer. Upon receipt of a response that does 13 not result in dismissal pursuant to subsection (b), or upon the filing of a complaint by the city clerk, 14 the city clerk shall appoint an administrative hearing officer to render a final decision regarding the 15 complaint. The administrative hearing officer may not be career service personnel of the city clerk's
 16 office or otherwise work in a full-time capacity as an employee of the city clerk but shall be an agent
 17 or employee of the city. Additionally, any person designated to serve as an administrative hearing
 18 officer shall be subject to the standards of conduct set forth in the Colorado Code of Judicial Conduct
 19 and subject to disqualification for bias, prejudice, interest, or for any other reason for which a judge
 20 may be disqualified in a court of law.

21 (5) Final determination. Upon receipt of the complaint, response, and any other
 22 information provided by the city clerk, the hearing officer shall schedule a date and time for a hearing
 23 or, if there are no genuine issues of material fact in the complaint, render a final decision based on 24 written briefing by the parties. If the hearing officer determines that a hearing on the complaint is 25 necessary, the hearing shall be set no later than thirty (30) days from the mailing date of notice of 26 the hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing or upon review of the written briefs, the hearing officer
 27 shall issue a written final decision determining whether the complainant has shown by a
 28 preponderance of evidence that the respondent has committed a violation of this article. Upon finding
 29 a violation, the hearing officer may assess a penalty as set forth in subsection (d). The final decision
 30 together with the penalty may be appealed pursuant to Rule 106 of the Colorado Rules of Civil 31 Procedure.

(6) Authority of hearing officer. The hearing officer shall have the power to control the hearing including, but not limited to, setting a schedule for written for briefings, ruling upon motions and offers of proof, receiving and admitting evidence, limiting the presentation of evidence and cross-examination so as to prevent repetitive and cumulative evidence or examination, and ordering any person to be removed from the hearing. The hearing officer is entitled to examine any witness and request the submission of additional evidence and arguments. At the request of any party to the hearing, the hearing officer may subpoena witnesses, documents, and other evidence where the attendance of the witness or the admission of evidence is deemed necessary to decide the issues at the hearing. Any subpoena must be served by delivering a copy of it to the person named or by sending it to them by first-class mail. All costs related to the subpoena, including witness and mileage fees, shall be borne by the party requesting the subpoena. Any subpoena is enforceable by the requesting party in the county court. The respondent and complainant may present evidence to the hearing officer in the form of testimony, documents, rebuttal testimony, and opening and closing statements.

(b) Late and deficient reports.

(1) The city clerk may issue an administrative citation only for the failure to file a report required by this article or cure a deficient report. The procedures for enforcement, penalty, and appeals of such an administrative citation shall be specified in this section.

(2) Prior to issuing an administrative citation for a deficient report, the city clerk shall notify the point of contact disclosed for a registered lobbyist or lobbying entity by mail, telephone, or email with respect to any deficiencies found. The notice shall include a description of each deficiency and instructions on how to cure.

(3) Any person who has been issued an administrative citation for a reporting violation may request that the city clerk waive or reduce the fine. Such request shall be filed within ten (10) days of the due date of the fine. In determining whether to waive or reduce any such fine, the city clerk may consider the requestor's history of delinquency, outstanding penalties, and any other information provided by the requestor. The city clerk shall issue a written final decision granting or denying the request within five (5) business days.

(c) Enforcement. The city clerk, or an administrative hearing officer rendering a final decision, is authorized to assess civil penalties or refer matters to the city attorney for potential criminal prosecution as provided in this section.

(d) Civil penalties.

(1) The penalty for a reporting violation shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) per day but shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) per violation.

(2) The penalty for a violation of this article, other than a reporting violation, shall be within the discretion of a hearing officer and may include any of the following remedies:

a. A written warning to the person who committed the violation;

b. Revocation or suspension, for not more than twelve (12) months, of the lobbyist's or lobbying entity's certificate of registration;

c. The barring of a person or entity from registration for a maximum period of twelve (12) months; or

d. A monetary penalty not to exceed nine hundred ninety-nine dollars ($999.00) per violation.

(e) Criminal penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person to violate, or fail to comply with, the provisions of this article with the intent to hinder or prevent any disclosure required under this article. It shall also be unlawful to knowingly file any document provided for in this article that contains any materially false statement or material omission. Any such violation shall be subject to the penalties authorized in section 1-13.

Sec. 2-310.-- Notice. Reserved.

~~If, in any bi-monthly financial report filed under section 2-303, it is reported that more than fifty dollars ($50.00) was spent while lobbying a covered official or that a lobbyist donated to a covered official any meals, tickets to events for which admission is charged, or reduced price admissions to events for which admission is charged, then the city clerk shall notify the covered official in writing within twenty one (21) days. The city clerk shall also notify any covered official if a lobbyist reports any business or employment relationship involving that official within twenty one (21) days. Following receipt of either notification, the covered official may, within fifteen (15) days, file a written statement containing the reasons why his or her name should not be included in the report. This statement shall be attached to and remain a part of the report.~~

Sec. 2-311.-- Fees. Reserved.

~~(a) The clerk is authorized to establish fees and late filing penalties for:~~

~~(1) Filing of lobbyist registration statements as required by subsection 2-302(b);~~

~~(2) Amending lobbyist registration statements as required by subsection 2-302(d);~~

~~(3) Filing bi-monthly financial reports as required by subsection 2-303(b);~~

~~The clerk shall establish a fee schedule and make said schedule available to the public online.~~

Sec. 2-312. - Prohibited practices.

No person engaging in lobbying shall:

(1a) Attempt to influence any covered official by means of deceit or by threat of violence or economic or political reprisal against any person or property, with intent thereby to alter or affect such covered official's decision, vote, opinion, or action concerning any legislative matter which is to be considered or performed by him or her or the agency or body of which he or she is a member;

(2b) Knowingly provide false information to any covered official as to any material fact pertaining to any legislative matter or administrative matter which is to be considered or performed by him or her or the agency or body of which he or she is a member;

(3c) Misappropriate or misuse city office supplies;

(4d) Use city reproduction machines without paying for such use;

(5e) Enter or use a covered official's office, phone, or parking space without explicit permission;

(6f) View, remove, or attempt to remove any document, record, or information in any form whatsoever, from any covered official's office, desk, files, reproduction machine, computer equipment, or computer files or from any other place or source without explicit permission;

~~(7) Lobby a covered official in any city building unless the lobbyist is wearing a clearly visible badge identifying his or her name and firm, and unless the lobbyist discloses to the covered official the person whom the lobbyist is representing if requested by the covered official; provided, however, that the penalty for failing to wear a clearly visible badge shall be a letter of reprimand from the clerk.~~

Sec. 2-313. – Post-service lobbying restriction.

No former elected official and no former covered official described in section 2-301(6)(b) shall engage in lobbying for compensation or any other thing of value for a period of twelve (12) months following termination of office or employment.

Sec. 2-314. – Training required.

A registered lobbyist or an individual responsible for filing the registration and reports for a lobbying entity shall take the city clerk's approved training annually. The training shall be completed within thirty (30) days of registration.

Sec. 2-315. – Disclosure of lobbyist status.

A lobbyist or any individual employed by a lobbying entity who engages in lobbying shall:

(a) When providing testimony or information at a public hearing, disclose on the record that the individual is a registered lobbyist or is engaged in lobbying and identify any client on whose behalf the individual is appearing; and

(b) When communicating orally or in writing with a covered official for the purpose of lobbying, disclose at the time of the communication that the individual is a lobbyist or is engaged in lobbying and identify any client on whose behalf the individual is acting.
