Tristan Gorman

Tristan Gorman is a partner at Gorman & Zuckerman, LLC in Denver, where she practices criminal defense and family law. Her practice includes criminal defense ranging from municipal and traffic matters to first-degree murder cases, as well as a focus on LGBTQ family law. She is a member of the GLBT Community Center's Direct Referral Network and Access to Justice Program.

Ms. Gorman is also a member of the Colorado LGBT Bar Association and the Colorado Criminal Defense Bar and is active with the Public Policy Committees of both organizations. She was a fellow for New Leaders Council Denver in 2017.

Ms. Gorman received her B.A. in English from Colorado College in 2002 and her Juris Doctor from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law in 2010. Prior to joining Gorman & Zuckerman, she was a Deputy State Public Defender in the Denver Trial Office, where she was appointed to represent the indigent accused of crimes in more than 1,100 cases. She continues her zealous defense of those in need by balancing court-appointed counsel work through the Office of Alternate Defense Counsel with her private practice.
