Sean Choi is a Colorado Native and Korean American. As a first-generation college student, Sean attended the University of Colorado at Boulder with a B.A. in Political Science and later attended the University of Colorado at Denver graduating with an M.B.A. in Finance. He is a graduate of the Stonier School of Banking program at University of Pennsylvania, completed the Wharton Leadership Program at University of Pennsylvania, completed the Diversity and Inclusion certificate program through Cornell University, and is a graduate of Leadership Aurora (Aurora Chamber of Commerce).

After joining FirstBank as an intern in 2011, Sean spent over a decade as a residential and commercial real estate lender and is currently serving as the Director for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion for FirstBank. Sean has a passion for implementing diverse, equitable, and inclusive strategies that benefit employees, customers, and the community, having assisted with the bank's multicultural banking efforts, sitting on the company diversity committee, and now directing the bank's DEI strategy.

Sean is actively involved in the community. He is currently a board member for the FoodBank of the Rockies and a board member for B:Civic. He also serves on the advisory boards for ActivateWork and Sharing Connexions. He has previously served as a Board Member on multiple non-profits including the Asian Chamber of Commerce (former Board Chair), Scholars Unlimited (former Board Chair), the Havana Business Improvement District (Aurora, CO), and the Aurora Symphony Orchestra.

Through coaching, empathy, and perspective, Sean supports people to be their most authentic self, build sustainable relationships, and create joyful environments that enable inclusion and belonging.
