Urban Future Neighborhood Context

- Predominately residential
- Homes are typically low-scale single- and two-unit residential with some small-scale multi-unit residential and commercial.
- Offers good walkability with short, predictable blocks.

Consistency with Adopted Plans: Blueprint Denver

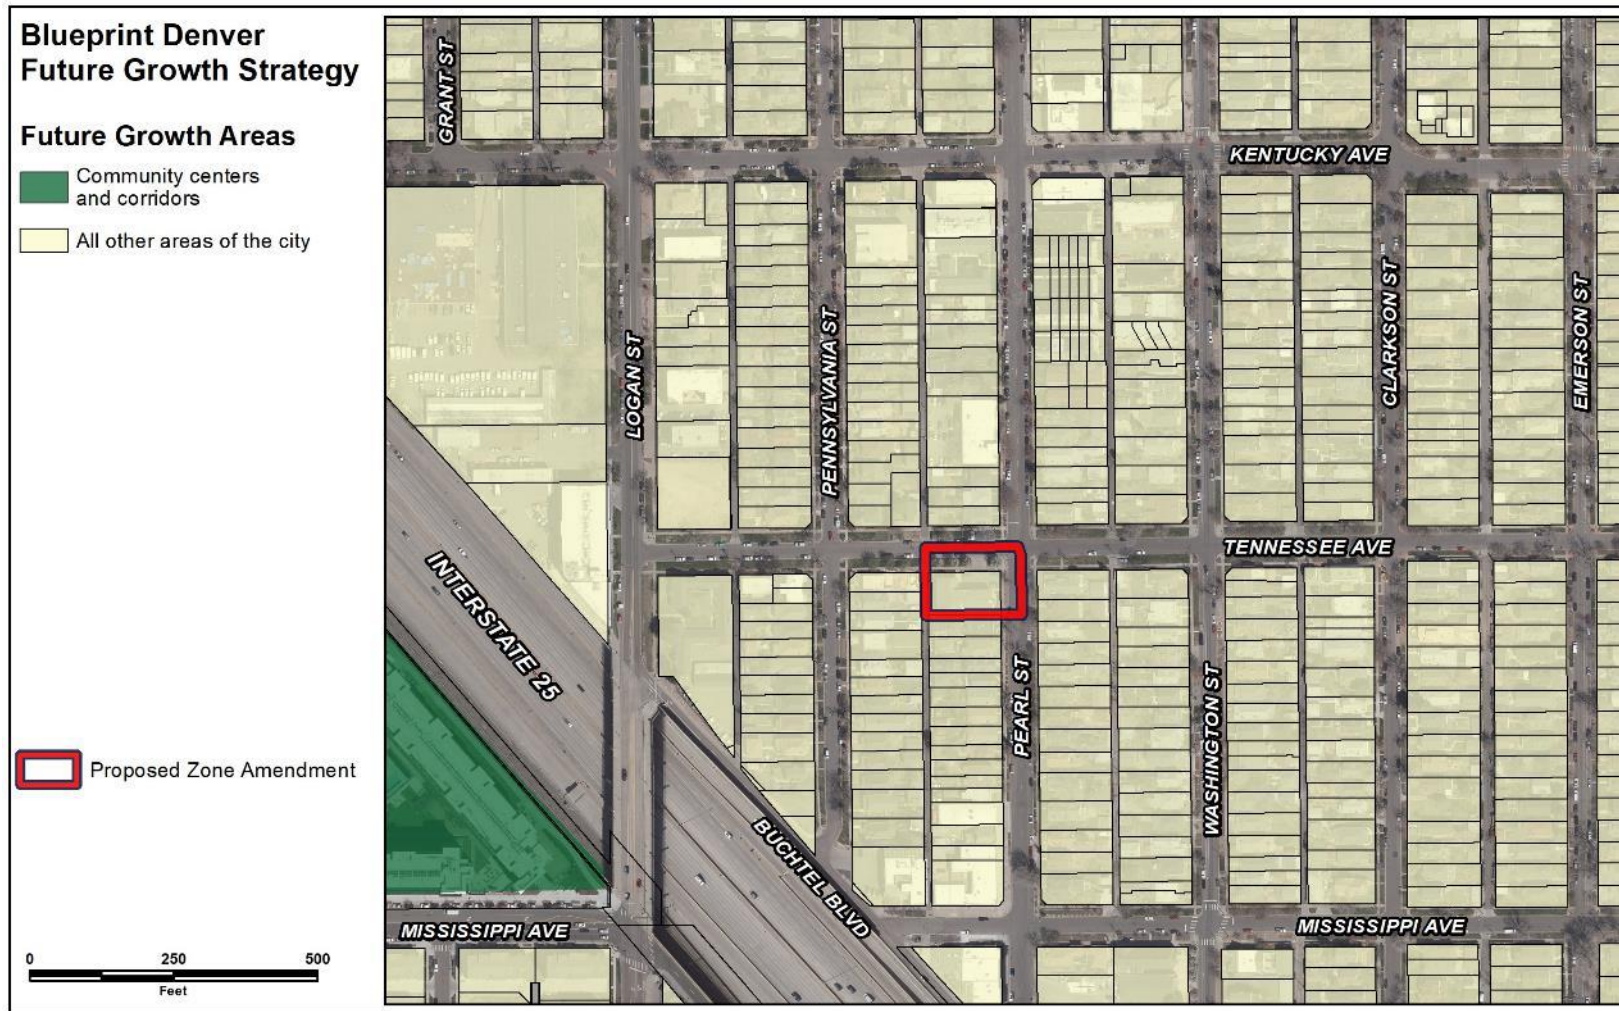

Residential Low Future Place Type

- Generally characterized by single-unit uses on larger lots.
- Buildings are typically up to 2.5 stories in height.
- Vacant institutional uses on corners or select sites may be appropriate locations to introduce additional residential intensity.

Future Street Type

- Local / Undesignated

Consistency with Adopted Plans: Blueprint Denver

All Other Areas of the City

- 10% of new employment
- 20% of new housing

Most growth is guided to regional centers, community centers and corridors, select districts and high and medium-high intensity residential areas. Other areas of the city are still expected to see some growth, however more limited.

Consistency with Adopted Plans: Blueprint Denver

- Land Use & Built Form: General Policy 6: Implement zoning code revisions to facilitate compatible redevelopment of institutional sites within neighborhoods.
- Land Use & Built Form: Design Quality and Preservation Policy 6: Incentivize the preservation of structures and features that contribute to the established character of an area, even if they are not designated as landmarks or historic districts.

Consistency with Adopted Plans: Blueprint Denver

- Custom Zoning
 - “Limit the use of site-specific, customized zoning tools—such as Planned Unit Developments (PUDs) and waivers/conditions—to unique and extraordinary circumstances. Custom zoning tools are most effective when a standard zone district does not exist to implement the adopted plans for an area” (p. 73).

Consistency with Adopted Plans: West Washington Park Neighborhood Plan

PUD Review Criteria

- A. The PUD District is consistent with the intent and purpose of such districts stated in Article 9, Division 9.6 (Planned Unit Development) of the Zoning Code;

 - The PUD represents a thoughtful expansion of allowable uses that are more sensitive and less impactful than rezoning to a standard mixed use or main street zone district.
 - The PUD is limited to reuse of the existing building or redevelopment within the Urban House building form applicable to the U-SU-B zone district.

PUD Review Criteria

- Not intended solely as a vehicle to develop a site inconsistent with the applicable neighborhood context or enhance economic feasibility
