Rent/Utility Assistance Additional Funding

$10M in Additional Resources for Rent/Utility Assistance

- $10M gap to address the continued need for rent and utility assistance in 2023
- Department of Finance and Department of Housing Stability worked together to identify additional funding
- $5,544,245 - American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA)-State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (SLFRF) for Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP) to serve an additional ~650 households
- $4,455,655 – Transfer from the Affordable Housing Incentive Fund and appropriation of property tax revenue for Temporary Rent & Utility Assistance (TRUA) Program to serve an additional ~500 households
- Department of Finance presented at Finance and Governance Committee on 5/9

Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP)

HOST's Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP2)

The City and County of Denver continues to administer the $17,046,597.63 of federal Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP2) from the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

ERAP2 federal summary guidelines

- May provide up to 18 months of assistance (including any assistance provided from ERAP1)
- Funds can be used for rent arrears, current rent, and future rent
 - May include deposit and/or first month's rent for relocation
- Up to 10% available for housing stability services intended to help keep households stably housed (e.g. case management, mediation, housing navigation); Up to 15% available for administrative costs
- Funds generally expire on September 30, 2025 (will be fully expended in 2023)

ERAP Progress and Successes

- More than 3200 unduplicated households assisted (2,177 - ERAP1 and 1,466 -ERAP2 from 2021 – 3/31/23)
- Partnership with the Colorado Division of Housing which has served an additional 10,700 Denver households with more than $137M in assistance
- Providing housing stability services (mediation, case management, and housing navigation)
- Use of direct to tenant payments, fact-specific proxy, and categorical eligibility to reduce barriers
- Built stronger partnerships between ERAP providers, legal assistance providers, Sheriff Department, and others to help prevent evictions and keep people in their homes
- Highlighted in Treasury's best practices for use of commitment letters
- Targeted outreach via social media to areas with the highest rates of eviction
 - Strong alignment with households served with ERAP in those areas
- Continuous use of data to evaluate equity (demographics, preferred language, location)

ERAP Current State

- Due to limited ERAP funds remaining:
 - The State stopped accepting new applications as of November 15, 2022
 - Denver stopped accepting new applications as of December 10, 2022
- Processing previously submitted applications with limitations on the number of months of assistance
- Exceptions to application deadlines and/or limitations on assistance may be made:
 - For households at imminent risk of eviction
 - To ensure housing stability
- ERAP Navigators available during Eviction Clinic hours at Denver County Courthouse to assist with navigation to TRUA and other available resources
- Adding ARPA funds will allow for:
 - Continued processing of new first-time applications AND recertifications
 - Easing of limitations to number of months of assistance

ERAP Winddown

- Program expected to be fully complete by end of 2023
- Three phase winddown process
 - Phase 1 – Application Processing
 - Phase 2 – Winddown
 - Phase 3 – Portal Closeout
- Research project with National Low Income Housing Coalition and University of Pennsylvania to better understand resident experience and longer-term outcomes after receiving ERAP assistance
- For more information visit Denvergov.org/RentHelp or connect with a representative by calling or texting 720-356-0174 or 1-888-480-0066, Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m., Saturdays 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Temporary Rent & Utility Assistance (TRUA)

Temporary Rent and Utility Assistance (TRUA) Program

- TRUA was launched in late 2017 to provide short-term rent and utility assistance to Denver residents facing an unexpected financial hardship
- Eligibility criteria:
 - Denver residents must be at or below 80% of the Area Median Income (AMI)
 - Unexpected financial hardship related or unrelated to COVID
 - Increasing from up to three months to up to six months of rent assistance and one occurrence of utility assistance per utility per year
 - May include deposit/first month's rent
- 1,097 households served in 2021
- 931 households served in 2022
- 397 households served Jan-March 2023

Temporary Rent and Utility Assistance (TRUA) Program

- Will transition fully back to TRUA to provide rent and utility assistance as ERAP concludes in 2023
- Working on building out an online application and database in addition to paper application to improve transparency and consistency for residents and landlords, data tracking and reporting, and coordination between providers
- Monthly meetings with community organizations to get feedback, build stronger partnerships, resolve issues with pending applications, and further reduce barriers for residents with limited English proficiency and/or technology barriers
- Denver residents can apply for TRUA by calling 311 and pressing 6

TRUA Changes to Meet Increased Demand

- Since ERAP stopped accepting new applications, TRUA has received an unprecedented number of applications:
 - Receiving an average of 180 new applications every week
 - ~48% of applications have a demand letter and/or court summons
 - Processing times for prioritized applications: 2-5 days; Processing times for all other applications: 4-6 weeks
- Increased provider staffing and revised payment structure to expedite processing and payment times
- More HOST staff support for applicants including staff dedicated to processing more urgent applications
- Online application/database – coming soon (allowing residents to see the status of their application); For current application status updates, residents can contact DenverTRUA@denvergov.org or call 720-913-1534.
- Increasing the number of months of assistance that may be provided (from 3 months to up to 6 months)

ERAP2 Eligibility Guidelines

An “eligible household” is defined as a renter household in which at least one individual meets the following criteria:

1. Qualifies for unemployment or has experienced a reduction in household income, incurred significant costs, or experienced a financial hardship during or due, directly or indirectly to the coronavirus pandemic;
2. Demonstrates a risk of experiencing homelessness or housing instability; and
3. Has a household income at or below 80 percent of the area median

Per Treasury guidance, eligible households that include an individual who has been unemployed for the 90 days prior to application for assistance and households with income at or below 50 percent of the area median are to be prioritized for assistance.
