Charter Section § 2.2.6 (D) requires consent of City Council for the Mayoral appointment of Charter officers. The Mayor has selected Anne-Marie Braga to serve as Executive Director of the Department of Human Services. The Charter department of Human Services is responsible for administration of fundamental social safety net programs that provide public assistance, including Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP), as well as overseeing child welfare, Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP), and adult protection, among other notable programs. The department plays a key role in managing Federal and State funding and guidelines around vulnerable populations and key support programs for residents. One in three people in Denver engage with this department and staff helps children, older adults, families, and individuals by connecting them to services and experts who support their overall well-being.

Anne-Marie Braga has dedicated her career to social and human services, with a focus on equity, inclusivity and community engagement. Her leadership has been marked by a steadfast commitment to addressing issues such as homelessness, child welfare and food insecurity.

For the past four years, she served as a Deputy Executive Director of Community Partnerships for the Colorado Department Human Services where she provided people-centered leadership to a variety of economic security and supportive human services programs to help all Coloradans thrive.
