EMPLOYMENT

Hall & Evans, LLC, Denver, Colorado
Member, August 2018 – Present
Represent clients before the Tenth Circuit and Colorado appellate courts preparing briefs and presenting oral argument.

Represent clients in immigration matters before USCIS, CBP, U.S. Department of State, and U.S. immigration courts. Prepare employment-based and family-based non-immigrant petitions as well as permanent residency and naturalization applications. Provide pro bono representation and assist non-immigration attorneys in pro bono asylum, Special Immigrant Juvenile and U visa matters.

Present on immigration topics including asylum for victims of domestic violence at the Graduate School of Social Work, University of Denver and the impact of populism on the asylum process in the U.S. at the Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland. Mentor current and former law students from the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law.

University of Denver, Sturm College of Law, Denver, Colorado
Adjunct Professor, January 2018 – May 2018
Developed and taught three-credit course titled "Immigration Law & the Workplace." The course examined the processes and procedures of employment-based U.S. immigration as it relates to skilled, unskilled, and agricultural workers; workers in professional fields; persons of extraordinary ability; and intracompany transferees. The course also explored immigration enforcement affecting employers.

University of Denver, Sturm College of Law, Denver, Colorado
Adjunct Professor, Civil Litigation Clinic, August 2017 – December 2017
Co-taught weekly classes in the Civil Litigation Clinic on substantive law (immigration, eviction defense, civil protection orders, wage and hour), trial skills, the attorney-client relationship, and cross-cultural and social justice lawyering. Supervised and evaluated Civil Litigation Clinic students on immigration cases including bond hearings and special immigrant juvenile and asylum petitions.

Stern & Curray, LLC, Denver, Colorado
Partner, April 2013 – April 2017

Represented clients in immigration matters before USCIS, CBP, U.S. Department of State, and U.S. immigration courts. Prepared employment-based and family-based non-immigrant petitions and permanent residency applications, naturalization applications, and BIA appeals. Drafted written materials for clients and potential clients on various immigration processes and developments in U.S. immigration policy. Presented on immigration topics to employers nationally and internationally.

Hall & Evans, LLC, Denver, Colorado
Special Counsel, January 2009 – April 2013
Represented clients in hearings, depositions, mediation and trial in Colorado and federal district courts. Performed daily research and analysis on issues of tort liability and breach of contract. Drafted discovery, dispositive, and trial related motions. Provided pro bono representation to asylum seekers. Represented Hall & Evans in The Colorado Pledge to Diversity Clerkship Employment Program.

Fowler, Schimberg & Flanagan, P.C., Denver, Colorado
Associate Attorney, February 2007 – December 2008
Represented clients in hearings, depositions and mediation. Performed legal research and analysis on issues of eminent domain, breach of contract, tort liability, and regulation of public utilities. Drafted discovery, dispositive, and trial related motions. Represented clients before state and federal district and appellate courts.

2nd Judicial District, Denver, Colorado
Law Clerk, The Honorable Shelley I. Gilman, August 2005 – February 2007
Conducted legal research and prepared orders on dispositive motions, bills of costs, and county court and administrative appeals. Prepared regular court dockets for sentencing hearings, preliminary hearings, arraignments, disposition hearings and motions hearings.

Jagiellonian University Human Rights Center, Krakow, Poland
Instructor/Research Assistant, July 2000 – July 2002
Conducted bi-weekly seminars for law students on international human rights and refugee law. Prepared grant applications and quarterly and annual reports to the UNHCR, the Ford Foundation, and other governmental and non-governmental organizations. Advocated for development of legal clinics in Central and Eastern European law schools. Evaluated and advocated for reforms to the Polish Act on Aliens in light of the requirements of the European Union Asylum Acquis. Developed community outreach campaigns on human rights and refugee issues.
