This contract amends an agreement with Jewish Family Service of Colorado, Inc. to administer the Temporary Rental and Utility Assistance (TRUA) Program, increasing the current contract amount of $622,137.00 by $251,500.00 in Affordable Housing Property Tax funds for a new total contract amount of $873,637.00, and extending the contract term with current expiration of 12/31/2024 by 3 months (90 days) for a new contract expiration of 3/31/2025. The contract will serve an estimated 85 households.

Jewish Family Service of Colorado, Inc. will provide rental and utility assistance and housing case management services to eligible households in the City and County of Denver earning up to 80% of the area median income (AMI) who are unable to pay rent and/or utility bills due to a current financial or other housing crisis. Assistance may also include relocation expenses, such as deposit and first month's rent when necessary to relocate to another housing unit in order to maintain housing stability. The aggregate amount of financial assistance an eligible household may receive under TRUA must not exceed 6 months within a 12-month period (calendar year).

This contract will serve approximately 85 unduplicated households with rental and/or utility assistance. Of these 85 households, a total of 15 unduplicated households will also be served with case management support. Jewish Family Service of Colorado, Inc. will provide case management support to eligible TRUA applicants who express interest in receiving this assistance, including, but not limited to these service offerings: housing stability planning; financial counseling and budgeting assistance; employment support; and referrals to community resources, healthcare, and mental health services.
