CHRIS MEEKS

[redacted]

OBJECTIVE

Mr. Meeks has 15+ years of experience in surveying and CAD drafting in reference to engineering, planning, and design.

As a land surveying manager, his responsibilities include design calculations, horizontal/vertical field layouts, construction monitoring and inspections, and working with contractors in the field to build the project to correct specifications.

As an AutoCAD designer, his responsibilities include developing and designing construction plans as well as grading, site, utility, roadways and trails, channel, storm and sanitary sewer, erosion-control, reports, and cost estimates for several private and public government projects.

Mr. Meeks also has several years of experience in real estate investing; primarily with residential acquisitions, management of contractors, rehab, and financials.

EDUCATION

BS Civil Engineering | Colorado State University Pueblo
2016 – 2019

EXPERIENCE

President | Hope Homes
OCT 2017 – PRESENT
Started Hope Homes with the mission to give a percentage of every transaction to a non-profit organization. Scope includes finding distressed properties, rehabilitating them, and selling them.

Staff Engineer | Respec Consulting
NOV 2017 – DEC 2020
AutoCAD designer and engineer tasked with creating construction plans, reports, field inspections, company marketing, and client relations.

Land Surveyor/Engineering Technician | Highline Engineering
MAY 2002 – FEB 2014
Land surveyor with focus on boundary surveys, commercial and residential construction staking. Also worked as a CAD technician that assisted with construction plan design and calculations.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- ProFootballCamp — Donated profits so low-income kids to go to summer camp
- Make A Wish — Donated profits so kids with life-threatening illnesses can get their wish granted
- Denver Children's Hospital — Visited kids in the burn unit with Santa to sing them holiday songs and give gifts.

To Whom it May Concern,

It has been my great privilege to know Christopher Meeks first as a client and then as a person for a number of years and would highly recommend him for a position on the Community Corrections Board.

I represented Chris as his Public Defender during his case in El Paso County. I believed passionately in him and we worked closely together during the litigation and trial process. I have gotten to know Chris even better since the conclusion of that trial and have been incredibly impressed with how he adapted and grew following his case's conclusion. Many of my former clients react with rage or pity when faced with a correctional sentence, Chris used it as an opportunity and as a result has turned his life around in a more successful way than any of my other clients I had the honor of representing in my 6 years with the Public Defenders.

Chris can provide the board with a unique and valuable perspective since he is a wonderful example of what the rehabilitation system can and should achieve. He used his time under correctional supervision to expand his education and experience, and to contribute not just to the system he was in but his to his greater community. He's since gone on to success in his post correctional life both professionally and personally in a way that defies both the odds and common expectations.

Having Chris on the board will no doubt improve its ability to serve the rehabilitation needs of those under its supervision. He would be an extremely valuable addition and he would be able to help many, many other people going through an experience similar to his. Please let me know if I can provide any more information, thank you.

BAYAUD ENTERPRISES

Employment Matters

July 31, 2020

Dear Mayor Hancock,

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Christopher Meeks as a potential board member for the Denver Community Corrections Board. I believe with Mr. Meeks history; he would be an asset to the board. Mr. Meeks has worked hard to put his past behind him and is now a productive member of the community.

I first met Mr. Meeks when I was the Director of Vocational services with The Colorado Coalition for the Homeless. He was passionate about helping our homeless community and asked how he could volunteer his time to make a difference. During this time, I found Mr. Meeks to always be friendly, honest, intelligent, and caring. He has a drive that is seldom seen without the need for accolades or praising. By the time I became the Executive Director for Bayaud Enterprises, we created a strong bond. He has since volunteered to help with the needs here. I have had many conversations about his past, his future, and his desire to help those in the prison system and re-entry. These conversations came well before this position was even thought to be a possibility to him. I truly believe that Mr. Meeks is someone who can add great value to the Board with his life experiences, being in the justice system, and the hurdles he had to overcome as a felon to create such a great life for himself. I believe his story is a testimony to others that things can change for the better, even if you have had difficult times in the past. Please feel free to contact me if you have any other questions.

Respectfully,

Tammy [redacted]
