5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed: (who, what, why)

Clayton Early Learning has provided a better start for vulnerable children in the community for more than 100 years and has evolved over the decades to meet the needs of a racially diverse and gender diverse group of children. For the past three decades, Clayton has focused on early childhood development serving children and their families who live below the poverty line, a majority of whom identify as people of color, and enabling them to thrive. Clayton Early Learning proposes to sustain and grow the Clayton Cares Market by expanding market days and hours to include residents in the Northeast Denver community as well as other Denver-based Head Start delegate agencies and securing partnerships with new vendors and local farms to expand their product offering. Clayton's Seed to Stomach Curriculum is an innovative program that is culturally and developmentally appropriate for young children and families, creating teaching and learning practices through explorations with nutritious yet delicious food. The Clayton Cookbook (launched in June 2020) will also be a part of this curriculum featuring healthy, seasonal recipes with economical and familiar ingredients.
