5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed:

Huerta Urbana 2Gen Farm Incubator is a community-built social enterprise at Focus Points Family Resource Center providing economic opportunity through urban agriculture. The program opens opportunities for participants to get better-paying jobs and start their own businesses in the industry while earning stipends to support their families. In partnership with our Early Childhood Programs, PAT and HIPPIY, Huerta will be distributing weekly, CACFP-guided 'Bounty Boxes' to each of the 234 children aged 0-5 in those programs by growing produce on our farm here at Focus Points and aggregating other food items from co-operatively owned and operated farms around Colorado. In addition to the nutrition, we will be providing education and resources for parents on how to prepare and enjoy the produce provided.
