Katelyn E. Kendrick (they/them) is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst with a focus on neurodiversity-affirming and trauma-informed practices. They practice in the Denver-Metro region, bringing over 10 years of experience in the fields of ABA and Special Education. Their educational background includes a B.A. in US History with a minor in Education from The University of California, Riverside, obtained in 2015; and an M.Ed. in Behavior Analysis from the University of Cincinnati in 2017.

Beyond their professional endeavors, Katelyn has dedicated over 15 years to advocacy and political movements. Their journey began with involvement in the fight for marriage equality, spurred by the passage of Prop 8 in California. Since then, they have actively engaged in DEIA (diversity, equity, inclusion, access) initiatives within behavior analytic professional organizations such as the Association for Contextual Behavioral Science and Association of Behavior Analysis International. Additionally, Katelyn has contributed training and labor to community theater organizations in the Denver-metro region, including Phamaly Theatre Company, Vintage Theatre Company, and IDEAs (Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, Access: Stages). Katelyn also serves on the DEI Subcommittee of the Dissemination Committee for the Colorado Association of Behavior Analysis.

Living at the intersection of multiple identities, Katelyn embraces their life as an autistic, mentally ill, pansexual, and non-binary femme individual.
