Scope of work:
The Denver Collaborative Partnership will direct client contact, resource development, supportive services, and ability to mitigate safety concerns and secure safety in the home. Length of services are based on the family's needs. PSSF prevention program services are provided through the DCP per a memorandum of understanding with the State of Colorado which defines goals, resources, and services or programs to be provided by the Denver Collaborative Management Program known as DCP.
The following core components of the intensive case management/family preservation program model will be provided by the Denver Collaborative Partnership, with fiscal oversight by Savio House, via resources that include: (1) evidence based or an innovative practice; (2) provision of community/home-based intensive case management for up to 50 hours per family (including the following characteristics: one assigned case manager, development of an individualized case plan based on family's strengths, services reflect trauma-informed care principals); (3) intensive outreach and support to families; (4) use of a multi-disciplinary team (case management, mental health, etc.); (5) service coordination between Denver Human Services, Juvenile Justice agencies, schools, the provider, mental health support and the family; (6) family advocacy, working alongside the parents in navigating and educating parents about the various systems and (7) small caseloads. All programming will be strengths-based, family-directed and culturally sensitive/responsive.
As part of the PSSF program, Denver Collaborative Partnership will meet the family where they are and most comfortable such as in their home, community, or any other place the family prefers, take detailed notes and ensure prompt communication with the other

Was this contractor selected by competitive process? No

If not, why not?
DCP is Denver's Collaborative Management Program and are required to have a fiscal agent per the HB1451 legislation. The fiscal agent is required to inform and be held accountable by DCP's interagency Oversight Group (lOG). Since the program is funded by state funds, Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS) requires the funds to pass through the local human services agency, which requires a city contract per City rules. However, the IOG is responsible for monitoring the fiscal agent and holding them responsible to their fiscal responsibilities to the program and to the IOG. The IOG directs the terms of the State MOU which has an agreement term that follows the State Fiscal Year (July 1 to June 30) annually.

The PSSF contract for prevention services is a federal program grant that is provided on the federal fiscal year term, which explains the term difference for this contract.
