Article 5. Urban Neighborhood Context
Division 5.1 Neighborhood Context Description

DIVISION 5.1 NEIGHBORHOOD CONTEXT DESCRIPTION

SECTION 5.1.1 GENERAL CHARACTER

The Urban Neighborhood Context is primarily characterized by single-unit and two-unit residential uses. Small-scale multi-unit residential uses and commercial areas are typically embedded in residential areas. Single-unit residential structures are typically Urban House forms. Multi-unit building forms are typically Shop Row House forms embedded with other residential building forms. Commercial buildings are typically Single front and General forms that may contain a mixture of uses within the same building. Single- and two-unit residential uses are primarily located along local and residential arterial streets. Multi-unit residential uses are located along local streets, residential and mixed use arterials, and main streets. Commercial uses are primarily located along mixed-use arterial or main streets but may be located at or between intersections of local streets.

SECTION 5.1.2 STREET, BLOCK AND ACCESS PATTERNS

The Urban Neighborhood Context consists of a regular pattern of block shapes surrounded by an orthogonal street grid. Orthogonal streets provide a regular pattern of pedestrian and vehicular connections through this context and there is a consistent presence of alleys. Block sizes and shapes are consistent and primarily include detached sidewalks (though attached sidewalks are also found), tree lawns where provided for by detached sidewalks, street and surface parking, and landscaping in the front setback.

SECTION 5.1.3 BUILDING PLACEMENT AND LOCATION

Residential buildings typically have consistent, moderate front setbacks, shallow side setbacks and consistent orientation. Commercial buildings typically have consistent orientation and shallow front setbacks with parking at the rear and/or side of the building.

SECTION 5.1.4 BUILDING HEIGHT

The Urban Neighborhood Context is characterized by low scale buildings except for some mid-rise commercial and mixed use structures, particularly at nodes or along arterial streets.

SECTION 5.1.5 MOBILITY

There is a balance of pedestrian, bicycle and vehicle reliance with greater access to the multi-modal transportation system.

Denver Zoning Code Review Criteria

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans
2. Uniformity of District Regulations
3. Further Public Health, Safety and Welfare
4. Justifying Circumstances
5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context, Zone District Purpose and Intent

Denver Zoning Code Review Criteria

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans

- Comprehensive Plan 2000
- Blueprint Denver: A Land Use and Transportation Plan
- Sunnyside Neighborhood Plan (1992)

2. Uniformity of District Regulations

3. Further Public Health, Safety and Welfare

4. Justifying Circumstances

5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context, Zone District Purpose and Intent

Review Criteria: Consistency with Adopted Plans

Blueprint Denver (2002)

- Land Use Concept:
 - Pedestrian Shopping Corridor
 - Low-scaled to be compatible with surrounding residential neighborhoods
 - Similar land uses as a town center or neighborhood center
 - Continuous street frontage of buildings, wide sidewalks, on-street parking, and shared parking among businesses
 - Area of Change

Review Criteria: Consistency with Adopted Plans

Blueprint Denver (2002)

- Future Street Classification:
 - Umatilla Street - Undesignated-Local: Local streets are tailored more to providing local access
 - Low travel speeds
 - West 44th Avenue - Residential Collector: Collectors streets are designed to emphasize walking, bicycling, and land access over mobility
 - Balance between mobility and land access within residential areas

Reminder: Evaluating whether the proposed zone district is consistent with the Future Street Classification, but not to assess the traffic impacts of a specific development proposal.

Land Use and Zoning Goal: “Maintain and stabilize the residential character of Sunnyside while encouraging small scale shops and offices, particularly in the commercial zones along 44th Avenue and Tejon Street, that will enhance and serve the neighborhood.”

Design Guidelines for 44th Avenue: “Discourage any new auto related uses or liquor licenses - Encourage the development of multi-family housing, neighborhood serving businesses, or small offices.”

Economic Development Recommendation: “Work towards a goal of concentrated commercial nodes, rather than scattered site development.”

Denver Zoning Code Review Criteria

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans

- CPD finds the rezoning is consistent with Comprehensive Plan 2000, Blueprint Denver: A Land Use and Transportation Plan, and the Sunnyside Neighborhood Plan

2. Uniformity of District Regulations

3. Further Public Health, Safety and Welfare

4. Justifying Circumstances

5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context, Zone District Purpose and Intent

Denver Zoning Code Review Criteria

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans
2. Uniformity of District Regulations
3. Further Public Health, Safety and Welfare
4. Justifying Circumstances –
 - The land or its surrounding environs has changed or is changing to such a degree that it is in the public interest to encourage a redevelopment of the area or to recognize the changed character of the area (DZC Section 12.4.10.8.A).
 - Property owner cites the “high profile location” as the changing condition and the obsolescence of the existing PUD standards.
 - The proposed change of use on the subject property from light industrial to commercial signals change and reinvestment in the area and is an appropriate justifying circumstance for the proposed rezoning.

5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context and Zone District Purpose and Intent

- Urban Neighborhood Context:
 - Single, Two-unit and small-scale multi-unit residential areas are primarily located along local and residential arterial streets.
 - Commercial uses are primarily located along mixed-use arterial or main streets but may be located at or between intersections of local streets.
 - Block shapes are uniform sizes shaped by a grid street pattern
- U-MS-2 (Urban Neighborhood – Main Street– 2 Story Max)
 - Zone district intended to promote safe, active pedestrian-scaled commercial streets and are also intended to ensure new development contributes positively to established residential neighborhoods and character. The districts are intended to promote an urban, mixed-use, built-to environment regardless of neighborhood context.

CPD recommends approval, based on finding all review criteria have been met

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans
2. Uniformity of District Regulations
3. Further Public Health, Safety and Welfare
4. Justifying Circumstances
5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context, Zone District Purpose and Intent
