ORDINANCE NO. _____
SERIES OF 2017

COUNCIL BILL NO. 17-0513
COMMITTEE OF REFERENCE:
Safety, Housing, Education & Homelessness

A BILL

For an ordinance amending the sentencing structure for violations of the Denver Revised Municipal Code, modifying the general penalty, and creating a tiered penalty system for different levels of class 1 and class 2 violations.

WHEREAS, the sentencing structure for violations of the Denver Revised Municipal Code (DRMC) has remained unchanged since 1993; and

WHEREAS, the DRMC sentencing structure has historically provided the same possible maximum jail sentence for most violations without regard for the nature of the violation; and

WHEREAS, most municipal code violations currently carry a maximum possible sentence of a $999.00 fine and/or one year in jail; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding this longstanding structure, the nature of municipal offenses has changed over the years, so that some cases involve more significant injury or wrongdoing while other “quality of life” violations disproportionately impact vulnerable populations; and

WHEREAS, a tiered system will promote greater proportionality in sentencing by providing for appropriate accountability for offenses that present an unacceptable risk of harm to the community while recognizing that some violations demand a lesser possible sentence; and

WHEREAS, this bill is intended to reform the sentencing structure within the DRMC to recognize the different levels of severity of municipal offenses.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER:

Section 1. Section 1-13 of the Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be amended by adding the language underlined and deleting the language stricken to read as follows:

4 available to the court.

5 (2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the length of probation provided in section
6 14-61 of this Code.

7 (c) Separate violations. Unless distinct and separate violations can be otherwise established, ~~E~~each

13 promulgated hereunder requires, prohibits or declares to be unlawful the doing of any act, and
14 such violation is declared to be a noncriminal violation upon an admission or finding or judgment
15 of guilt or liability by default or otherwise, the violator shall be subject to such penalty as provided
16 in the chapter or section which defines such infraction. A penalty assessment notice procedure
17 may be established to resolve the allegation of such infraction in addition to any other resolution
18 procedure authorized in this Code.

23 judgments, and remedies provided by this Code are intended to be cumulative in nature unless
24 specifically indicated otherwise. The city may pursue one (1) or more of these civil, criminal, and
25 administrative actions, fines, sentences, penalties, judgments, and remedies and may do so
26 simultaneously or in succession.

28 the language underlined to read as follows:

29 Sec. 1-14. Offenses classified.

30 (a) Class 1 Offenses.

1 one (1) year, or both so fined and jailed.

2 (2) Class 1 offenses shall include the following:

10 (b) Class 2 Offenses.

11 (1) Any person convicted of a class 2 offense may, for each offense, be jailed not to exceed sixty
12 (60) days. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit sentencing options that are 13 otherwise available to the court, except that no person convicted of a class 2 offense shall be 14 subject to any fine.

23 h. Sec. 54-548. Solicitation on or near street or highway.

24 Section 3. Section 14-68 of the Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be amended by adding
25 the language underlined to read as follows:

26 Sec. 14-68. – Domestic violence; sentencing.

27 (b) Domestic violence; sentencing.

28 (1) Domestic violence probation, treatment. If the court places any person on probation who
29 is convicted of any crime, the underlying factual basis of which has been found by the court
30 on the record to include an act of domestic violence, the person shall be ordered, as a
31 condition of probation, to complete a treatment evaluation and treatment program that has 32 been approved by the state domestic violence offender management board or other similar

1 board created by statutes of the state. Nothing in this section shall preclude the court from
2 ordering such treatment in any appropriate case.

3 (2) Habitual domestic violence offender. Any municipal violation that includes an act of 4 domestic violence is a class 1 offense if the defendant at the time of sentencing has been
5 previously convicted of two or more prior offenses that included an act of domestic violence
6 and that were separately brought and tried and arising out of separate criminal episodes.

7 a. The prior convictions must be set forth in a special allegation filed by the prosecuting
8 attorney. For the purposes of this section, "conviction" includes any federal, state, or municipal 9 conviction for a felony, misdemeanor, or municipal ordinance violation.

10 b. For trials in cases alleging that the defendant is a habitual domestic violence offender
11 pursuant to this subsection (2), the trier of fact shall determine whether an offense charged
12 includes an act of domestic violence.

13 c. Following a conviction for an offense which underlying factual basis includes an act of 14 domestic violence:

15 1. If any prior conviction included a determination by a jury or was admitted by the 16 defendant that the offense included an act of domestic violence, the court shall proceed to
17 sentencing without further findings as to that prior conviction by the jury or by the court, if no jury
18 trial was had;

19 2. For any prior conviction in which the factual basis was found by the court to 20 include an act of domestic violence, but did not include a finding of domestic violence by a jury or 21 that was not admitted by the defendant, the trial court shall proceed to a sentencing stage of the 22 proceedings. The prosecution shall present evidence to the trier of fact that the prior conviction
23 included an act of domestic violence. The prosecution has the burden of proof beyond a 24 reasonable doubt.

25 3. At the sentencing stage referenced in paragraph 2 of this sub-subsection c, the 26 following applies:

27 i. A finding of domestic violence made by a court at the time of the prior
28 conviction constitutes prima facie evidence that the crime involved domestic violence;

29 ii. Evidence of the prior conviction is admissible through the use of certified
30 documents under seal, or the court may take judicial notice of a prior conviction;

31 iii. Evidence admitted at the guilt stage of the trial, including testimony of the 32 defendant and other acts admitted at trial, may be considered by the finder of fact.

1 d. Any person convicted as an habitual domestic violence offender under this subsection
2 (2) for a third or subsequent domestic violence offense shall, for each offense, be sentenced in
3 accordance with the provisions of section 1-14 of this Code.

4 Section 4. Section 14-71 of the Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be amended by adding
5 the language underlined to read as follows:

6 Sec. 14-71. Class 1 Offenses.

7 (a) Definitions. For purposes of this section:

9 amended.

11 person in substantial part because of that person's actual or perceived race, color, religion,

19 strangulation.

3 (b) Special allegation. To establish a class 1 offense, the prosecuting attorney may file a special
4 allegation of class one circumstances in any case if sufficient admissible evidence exists that
5 would justify such a finding by a reasonable and objective finder of fact.

6 (c) Procedure.

7 (1) If the prosecuting attorney files a special allegation of class one circumstances, the class
8 one circumstance must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

9 a. Unless the defendant has a trial by jury, the court shall make a finding of fact, to be made
10 part of the record upon conviction, of whether the class one circumstance was present at the 11 time of the commission of the offense.

12 b. If the defendant has a trial by jury and if the jury finds the defendant guilty, the jury shall 13 also find a special verdict as to whether the class one circumstance was present at the time of the 14 commission of the offense.

15 (2) If there is a finding that a class one circumstance was present at the time of the 16 commission of the offense, such finding shall be made part of the record of conviction.

17 (3) Any person convicted of a class one offense shall, for each offense, be sentenced in 18 accordance with the provisions of section 1-14(a) of this Code.

23 covering the preceding months of September, October, November, December, and January, and on 24 the first of October covering the preceding months of February, March, April, May, June, July, and 25 August. These reports shall include the following information:

26 (1) The number of bias-motivated offenses specially alleged and convictions entered, and

27 (2) The sentence imposed by the court for each conviction.

29 adding the language underlined to read as follows:

30 Sec. 38-99. Urinating or defecating in public.
