Sarah Chaikin

Sarah Chaikin is the cold case program coordinator with the Denver Police Department Victim Assistance Unit. She holds a bachelor's degree in human services and a master's degree in professional studies in applied communications. Since 1992, she has worked in various victim services, from on-scene crisis intervention for crime victims to investigating abuse and neglect of the elderly. In her current role, she is responsible for maintaining the Denver Police Department's compliance with the Victim Rights Act (C.R.S. 24-4.1-301). She also works in conjunction with the Cold Case Investigations Unit, providing outreach to victims of cold case sexual assault or felony kidnapping and to family members and co-victims of homicide.
