Dates by which a bill referring a question to the voters must pass second reading:

For referred measures, the bill must pass second reading no later than the ballot certification deadline. The ballot certification deadline is 60 days before election day. As such, any measure referred to the voters by council must pass second reading at the Monday meeting immediately preceding the ballot certification deadline, at the latest. To become law, the measure must receive a majority of the votes at the election.

- For the November 2019 Coordinated Election:
 - Election day: November 5, 2019
 - Ballot certification: September 6, 2019
 - Last Monday to pass second reading: August 26, 2019 (Moved up due to Labor Day)
- For the November 2020 General Election:
 - Election day: November 3, 2020
 - Ballot certification: September 4, 2020
 - Last Monday to pass second reading: August 31, 2020
