RE: Denver Revised Municipal Code — Partial Rezoning for Former Chapter 59
Planned Unit Developments

Staff Report and Recommendation

Based on the review criteria for text amendments stated in the Denver Zoning Code (DZC), Section 12.4.11 (Text Amendment), Community Planning & Development (CPD) staff recommends the Denver City Council approve the text amendment to the Denver Revised Municipal Code (DRMC) regarding partial rezonings of Former Chapter 59 Planned Unit Developments (PUD). A redline of the proposed amendment is available on the Community Planning & Development website at www.denvergov.org/textamendments and is also included as a supplement to this staff report. The proposed text amendment to the Denver Revised Municipal Code is sponsored by CPD.

Based on the review criteria for text amendments stated in the Denver Zoning Code (DZC), Section 12.4.11 (Text Amendment), CPD staff recommends the Denver City Council approve the bill regarding the Partial Rezoning for Former Chapter 59 Planned Unit Developments (PUDs) Text Amendment to the Denver Revised Municipal Code forward.

I. Summary and Purpose

The proposed Partial Rezoning for Former Chapter 59 Planned Unit Developments amendment will simplify the requirements for who can submit an application to rezone a Former Chapter 59 PUD to a DZC zone district. Currently, it is not permissible to apply to rezone a portion of a Former Chapter 59 PUD to a DZC district unless the PUD was adopted on or before June 1, 2002, and its terms explicitly state that it may be amended by a metes and bounds parcel, subarea, or platted lot (Former Chapter 59 Section 59-516(b)). Most Former Chapter 59 PUDs do not have such a statement allowing partial rezonings. When a PUD does not include such a statement, the rezoning (including a PUD amendment) must include the entire land area of the PUD and consent, in the form of signatures on an application, from all property owners in such PUD (Former Chapter 59 Section 59-515(a)) (see Figure I.1).

This proposed amendment, if approved, would allow a partial rezoning of a Former Chapter 59 PUD if the application would rezone the area to the DZC (see Figure 1.2). It would require consent from only those property owners within the portion being rezoned to a district in the DZC to apply. The rezoning review process including public hearings, notification requirements and review criteria would follow the official map amendment process described in the Denver Zoning Code, Section 12.4.10.

II. Criteria for Review and CPD Analysis

Although the proposed amendment does not amend the DZC, CPD analyzed the proposed text amendment for compliance with the review criteria for a text amendment found in Section 12.4.11.4 of the DZC, and finds the proposed text amendment satisfies each of the criteria. The DZC review criteria are based on legal criteria in Denver’s Charter for zoning amendments.

A. Text Amendment is Consistent with Adopted Plans

The Text Amendment is consistent with the following City adopted plans:

Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040:

Equitable, Affordable and Inclusive

- Goal 1, Strategy D: “Improve equitable access to city resources and city meetings through proactive and transparent communications, easy-to-access information and materials available in more than one language” (p. 28).
- Goal 6, Strategy A: “Adopt strategies to ensure that city plans and processes... incorporate equity” (p. 30).

Environmentally Resilient

- Goal 8, Strategy A: “Promote infill development where infrastructure and services are already in place” (p. 54).

The Partial Rezoning for Former Chapter 59 Planned Unit Developments Text Amendment is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan as the proposed amendment language promotes equal access for property owners with Former Chapter 59 zoning to apply for a rezoning into the Denver Zoning Code. The text amendment will promote infill development by eliminating a barrier that inhibits the development of Former Chapter 59 PUD properties. This is especially true of the many Former Chapter 59 PUDs that were designed for a specific project that never was developed, where the old zoning precludes any other development.

Blueprint Denver (2019):

Blueprint Denver recommends rezoning all properties from the Former Chapter 59 zoning code so that the entire city is covered by the DZC, “including continuing to incentivize owners to come out of the old code” (p. 73). This proposed text amendment will encourage owners to rezone from the Former Chapter 59 code to the Denver Zoning Code by simplifying the requirements to apply to rezone a property in a Former Chapter 59 PUD.

B. Text Amendment Furthers Public Health, Safety, and General Welfare

This text amendment furthers the general public health, safety, and welfare of Denver residents, land owners and businesses by providing an equal opportunity for all property owners with Former Chapter 59 zoning to apply to rezone to a DZC district. The requirement for consent from all property owners within a Former Chapter 59 PUD to apply for a rezoning does not exist for other Former Chapter 59 districts, those with waivers and conditions and site specific development plans such as Planned Building Groups. The requirement for consent from all property owners within a zone district also does not apply to any other zone district. Additionally, under the proposed amendment, properties would be subject to the rezoning process in the DZC, which includes more frequent and more extensive notification requirements to property owners and Registered Neighborhood Organizations than the process in the Former Chapter 59 Code. Further, such rezonings would be subject to the review criteria of the DZC, which can include consideration of community need and consistency with the neighborhood context among others, which are not rezoning review criteria in the Former Chapter 59 Code.

C. Text Amendment Results in Regulations that are Uniform within Each Zone District

The application requirements to partially rezone a former chapter 59 PUD to a DZC district are uniform throughout Denver. Moreover, the proposed text amendment will result in uniform application requirements for all properties in the Former Chapter 59 Zoning Code proposing to rezone to a DZC district.

As of the date of this staff report, CPD has received three public comment emails and a motion from the Inter-Neighborhood Cooperation related to this Text Amendment.

- One comment and the motion were in opposition to this amendment because it would facilitate piecemeal rezoning of Former Chapter 59 PUD properties into the Denver Zoning Code.
- One comment from the Country Club Historic Neighborhood Registered Neighborhood Organization in opposition because it could eliminate any agreements between the neighborhood and developer.
- One comment from a private citizen in support of the amendment.

Thank you Libbie.

I don't know how to proceed on this because it is really a big picture issue about how rezoning is facilitated piecemeal rather than through the planning process. And it seems designed to benefit PUD owner/developers by allowing them a way around the existing PUD application process. I have a feeling there are specific instances driving this.

I meant to reply last week, but I cannot meet with Kyle Dalton on the 23rd. Is he going to be the Planner presenting at INC ZAP on Saturday?

Thanks,
Christine

As required by DRMC § 12-96, a meeting of the above-referenced Registered Neighborhood Organization was held on June 3, 2019, with 7 Exec Committ⁺ members in attendance.

With a total of 7 Exec Committee members voting,

0 voted to support (or to not oppose) the application;

7 voted to oppose the application; and

0 voted to abstain on the issue.

It is therefore resolved, with a total of 7 members voting in aggregate:

The position of the above-referenced Registered Neighborhood Organization is that Denver City Council oppose Application # Rezoning for Chapter 59 PU⁺.

Comments:	The Country Club Neighborhood Organization (CCHN) is opposed to the proposed text amendment in the Partial Rezoning for Former Chapter 59 Planned Urban Development because we believe that allowing PUD parcels to be modified within subareas for revised zoning undermines the intent with which these properties were originally zoned. PUD agreements were negotiated in good faith as an entirety for the developments within or adjacent to our community and this proposed text eliminates these good faith agreements.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Unable to attend Plg Bd today - surprised to read INC is against this text amendment
Date: Wednesday, June 5, 2019 9:43:19 AM

Good morning,

Apologies for the challenged "copy and paste".

This text amendment is one of those situations where a citizen assumes the common sense decision will be supported and takes no action. I did not send in a letter of support and did not contact my RNO, Cherry Creek East Association, to request this text amendment notification be a board meeting agenda item with a vote in support.

This morning, I checked to see if the PUD Text Amendment was still on today's agenda, and then read the comments from the email from Christine O'Connor and the follow up letter from INC. I then found the minutes from the INC Zoning Committee, below, and still could find no relevant/specific arguments for their position against the text amendment. Honestly, I was shocked to read of their non-support.

Bob and I are residents of 242 South Monroe, a duplex, one of eight (8) parcels (four (4) duplexes) in PUD 467. The developer, Fay Palmer, did not create an HOA with construction completion in 2000/2001, and consequently, there has been no accountability to city/good maintenance guidelines for owners within the PUD. We purchased our property in 2004. The easy argument is to suggest we create an HOA. Four of the eight parcels are presently owned as rental property. Getting buy in on an HOA from owners who make the choice not to shovel snow, cut their lawns (private and ROW) nor maintain the property would be daunting. Getting buy in from the six other owners to re-zone the PUD would be just as daunting. This text amendment would allow us and our common wall owner to support the existing zoning of G-RH-3 and eliminate inclusion in an outdated and non-functioning zoning district.

The City's recommendations are based on what Denver citizens through City Council have approved as equitable and inclusive plans to better allow for all property owners to access the same zoning/re-zoning opportunities.

I will be viewing today's Live broadcast on Channel 8 this afternoon, and as I understand the Comment section at denvergov.org, will be able to submit a response to LUTI and City Council based on today's meeting.

Thanks for reading and reviewing this.

Sincerely,

INC ZONING AND PLANNING COMMITTEE MINUTES – JANUARY 26, 2019

February 22, 2019

Committee Co-Chairs Charles Nadler and Ean Tafoya convened the meeting. The following items were discussed.

1. Libbie Adams and Kyle Dalton of the Community Planning and Development Department presented to the committee a proposed text amendment to the Zoning Code regarding who may apply to re-zone a portion of an existing Planned Unit Development. They anticipate that the final hearing before City Council will be on April 8. Currently, all property-owners within a PUD must apply to rezone any portion of a PUD. The proposal is to require consent from only those property-owners within the portion being rezoned. Some committee members felt that the new process would disenfranchise the other property owners inside a PUD. Currently, there are approximately 500 PUDs in the city. Since 2010 the city has been trying to reduce and/or simplify PUDs, many of which are outdated. Many are very large, such as near the airport and Green Valley Ranch. Those with questions may contact Libbie.Adams@denvergov.org. A motion was made and seconded that the committee should recommend to the INC Delegation that INC should oppose the text amendment and that more outreach to registered neighborhood organizations was needed. The motion passed by a vote of 24 in favor, 0 opposed and 3 abstentions (including Joel Noble, who is a member of the Planning Board).
