 - Approves an agreement with Denver Civic Ventures to fund the Urban Forest Initiative grant program.
 - Through public-private partnership, the program will expand and enhance downtown's urban tree canopy by planting and/or improving existing planting areas for 400 to 500 trees.
 - Contract expires 12/31/2024.
 - Parks & Recreation will reimburse one-third of project costs, up to $3 million.

Downtown Denver's Expanding Residential Population

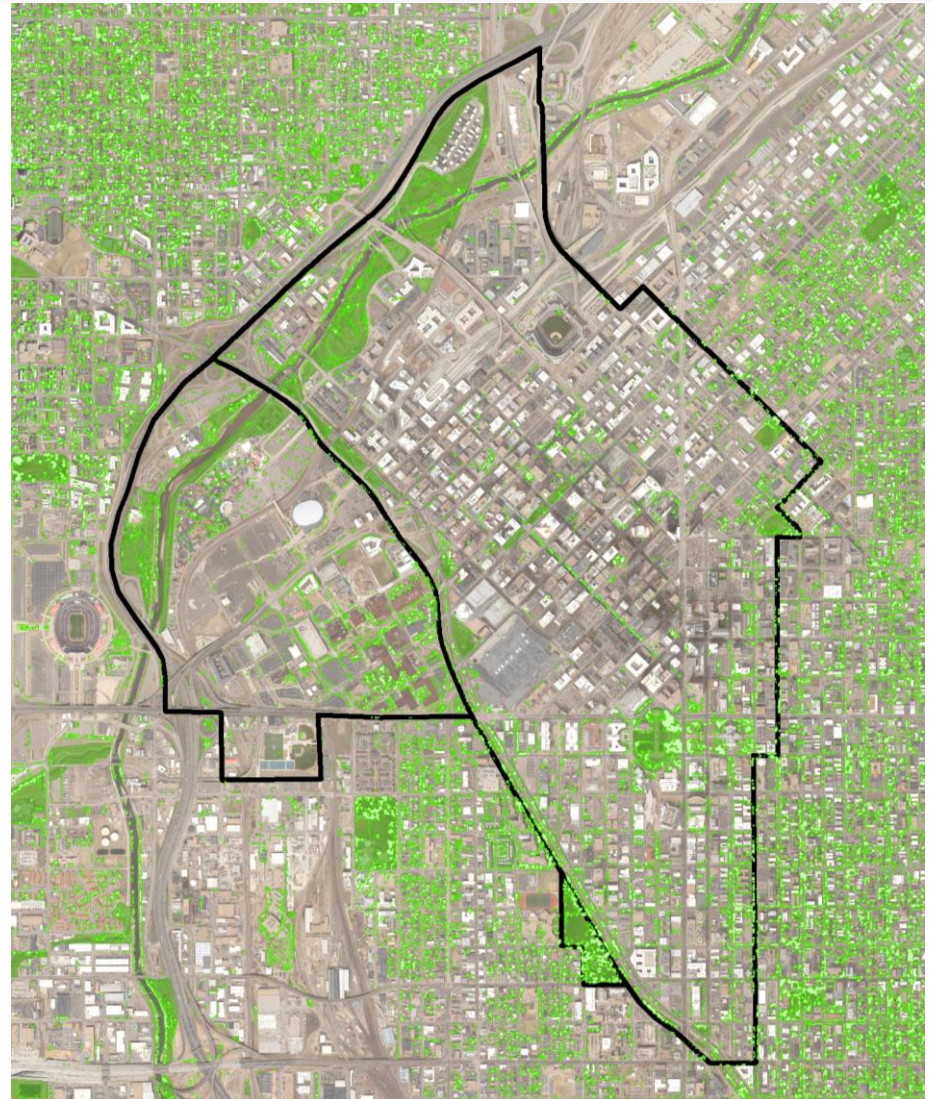

When measured against 20 other American cities, downtown Denver ranked the lowest for urban tree canopy with 4% coverage. Parks & Recreation's stated goal is 10%

The Outdoor Downtown

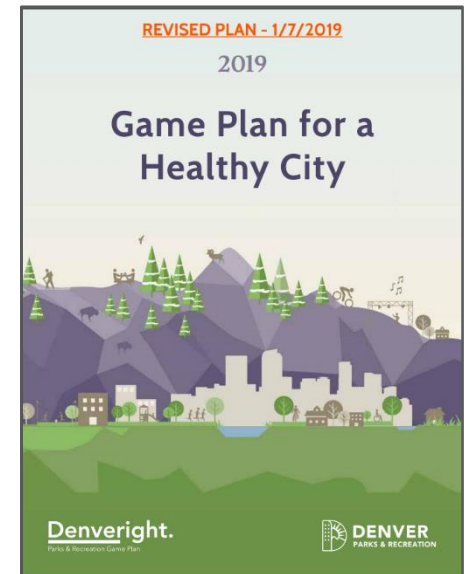

Rank your top three priorities for basic amenities.

Ballot Measure 2A

- Acquiring additional land for parks, trails, and open space;
- Developing, improving, and maintaining new and existing parks, trails, and open space, including in Denver's mountain parks;
- Restoring and protecting waterways, rivers, canals and streams;
- Purchasing, planting, and caring of trees, such as Urban Forest Initiative Grant Program and Equity Neighborhood Tree Planting Program; And
- Operating and maintaining any related additional acquisitions and capital improvements.

Game Plan for a Healthy City

Make the parks system more resilient and environmentally sustainable.

- Protecting and expanding our urban forest

Urban Forest Initiative

Cultivate the Culture

Build the Canopy

Maintain the Forest

- Grow the Downtown Forest Canopy coverage from 4% - 10%.
- Plant and/or improve the planting areas for 400-500 trees by 2024.
- Leverage the urban forest impact through partnerships: City & County of Denver, Denver Civic Ventures, Business Improvement District and property owners.
