SERIES OF 2019

COUNCIL BILL NO. CB19-1237

Finance & Governance

A BILL

For an ordinance adding a new Chapter 58, Wages.

WHEREAS, despite a state-wide minimum wage rate, many working Denver residents struggle to afford the basic necessities of life;

WHEREAS, the city seeks to confront the issue of wage inequity and cost of living affordability in the community;

WHEREAS, the city has historically demonstrated leadership on pay-equity issues;

WHEREAS, during the 2019 legislative session the Colorado legislature empowered local governments to establish a jurisdiction-wide minimum wage in accordance with certain requirements and restrictions mandated by state law;

WHEREAS, the Denver Revised Municipal Code requires payment of certain wages with respect to city contracts, however no jurisdiction-wide minimum wage was previously permitted pursuant to state law;

WHEREAS, ensuring that workers in Denver can support themselves and their families benefits the Denver economy and the well-being of the city;

WHEREAS, addressing the minimum wage needs of workers is a matter of significant local concern;

WHEREAS, studies of local minimum wage laws have demonstrated that jurisdiction-wide minimum wage laws can increase earnings for workers without negatively affecting overall employment;

WHEREAS, the city has consulted with surrounding local governments and extensively engaged with community stakeholders, including chambers of commerce, small and large businesses, businesses that employ tipped workers, workers, labor unions and numerous community groups;

WHEREAS, the city engaged with hundreds of community stakeholders by facilitating five (5) publicly-advertised open town hall meetings, by conducting open office hours to discuss minimum wage related-issues, and has met with dozens of community leaders to receive and consider advice

1 and feedback related to a Denver minimum wage;

2 WHEREAS, the city throughout its expansive outreach efforts solicited, received and 3 considered feedback, and revisited the terms of this ordinance based on stakeholder feedback;

5 employers throughout Denver to compensate workers no less than the Denver minimum wage 6 established herein;

8 it is in the best interest of the city and workers that all persons be paid not less than the minimum 9 wage regardless of age or ability/disability, but that where minors are enrolled in a certified youth 10 employment program that meets the criteria established by this ordinance and DEDO they are 11 receiving valuable educational, training and/or career development benefits that justify up to a 15% 12 reduction in the minimum wage paid only to youth under the age of 18 enrolled in such certified 13 programs, and that no person other than such minors shall be exempted from the requirement that 14 all workers be paid the minimum wage for work performed;

15 WHEREAS, the city has enjoyed robust economic growth for a prolonged period, and if the 16 local economy is materially impaired subsequent to the effective date of this ordinance, and found 17 by the city not capable of reasonably-sustaining future increases to the minimum wage in effect 18 pursuant to this ordinance, the city will review and evaluate the appropriateness of future increases 19 to Denver’s minimum wage; and 20 WHEREAS, the city seeks to regulate wage rates in its legislative capacity.

21 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF

23 Section 1. A new Chapter 58 - Wages, Article I. – In General, Section 58-1. – 58-15. of 24 the Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be added and read as follows:
25 Secs. 58-1. – 58.15. – Reserved.

26 Section 2. A new Chapter 58 - Wages, Article II. – Minimum Wage, Section 58-16. of the 27 Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be added and read as follows:
28 Sec. 58-16. –Denver minimum wage.

29 (a) Required. Subject to the terms of this article, every employer shall ensure its workers are 30 paid not less than the “Denver Minimum Wage” as calculated pursuant to Section 58-16(b) for work 31 performed in accordance with this article.

32 (b) Calculation of Denver minimum wage.

1 (1) City council hereby declares that it is in the best interest of the city to establish the Denver 2 minimum wage that shall be paid to workers in the manner described in this article.

3 (2) The Denver minimum wage, exclusive of fringe benefits and any other deductions or credits 4 except as described in this article, shall be calculated as follows:

5 i. Beginning January 1, 2020: $12.85 (twelve dollars and eighty-five cents) per hour;

6 ii. Beginning January 1, 2021: $14.77 (fourteen dollars and seventy-seven cents) per hour; 7 and

8 iii. Beginning January 1, 2022: $15.87 (fifteen dollars and eighty-seven cents) per hour.

9 (3) Tips regularly and actually received by a food and beverage worker may be applied to an 10 employer's obligation to pay such food and beverage worker the Denver minimum wage.
11 However, no more than $3.02 per hour in tip income ("Tip Credit") may be used to partially 12 offset payment of the Denver minimum wage.

13 (4) Employers may pay wages for work performed equal to the then-current Denver minimum 14 wage reduced on an hourly basis by up to 15 percent when compensating unemancipated 15 minor workers for work performed pursuant to a certified youth employment program. The 16 Denver economic development and opportunity agency may issue rules and regulations 17 related to certification and maintenance of eligibility of an employer as a certified youth 18 employment program. The foregoing shall not affect any tip credit offset prescribed by this 19 article, which shall also be permitted.

20 (5) In order to prevent inflation from eroding the value of the city's minimum wage rate, on 21 January 1, 2023, the Denver minimum wage rate shall increase by an amount corresponding 22 to the prior year's increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index (Urban Wage Earners and 23 Clerical Workers, Denver-Aurora-Lakewood) or its successor index as published by the U.S.
24 Department of Labor or its successor agency ("CPI"). Annually thereafter, on the first of 25 January, the Denver minimum wage rate shall increase by an amount corresponding to the 26 prior year's increase, if any, in CPI.

27 (c) Exclusions. In accordance with Colorado law, this article shall not apply to work that: (1) is 28 not performed physically within the geographic boundaries of the city; (2) is performed by a worker 29 totaling less than four hours in any given week for a particular employer within the geographic 30 boundaries of the city; or (3) occurs in the city solely for the purpose of traveling through Denver
31 from a point of origin outside of the city to a destination outside of Denver, with no employment-32 related or commercial stops in the city except for refueling or the worker's personal meals or errands.

1 (d) Worker Complaints. Subject to any rules and regulations that may be issued by the auditor, 2 any worker may submit a complaint of a violation of this article by her or his employer to the auditor.
3 The burden of demonstrating to the auditor's satisfaction that a violation has occurred rests with the 4 person making the complaint and shall be demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence. Any 5 such complaint shall be made in writing to the auditor and shall include all information relied upon 6 by such person. If a worker filing a complaint pursuant to this Section 58-16(d) is unable to 7 reasonably file her or his complaint in writing, a complainant may request the auditor to assist him 8 or her with documenting any allegations to satisfy the written complaint requirement. A worker may 9 also consult with an attorney or other third-party for assistance when filing a complaint. The auditor 10 shall prioritize complaints received pursuant to rules established by the auditor and may investigate 11 any credible complaints. For any credible complaint investigated by the auditor, the auditor shall 12 notify any employer alleged to have violated this article of any credible complaint, and shall provide 13 a summary of findings regarding any such complaint to both the complainant and the employer. Any 14 determination by the auditor pursuant to this article is reviewable by the complained-of party, 15 pursuant to Section 58-16(h). Any complaint must be submitted to the auditor within one year of the 16 date the employer was alleged to have violated the requirements of this article, and shall include:
17 the worker's name and/or the name of their duly authorized representative, if applicable; the worker's 18 contact information; a detailed statement of the employer's alleged violation of the requirements of 19 this article, including readily available supporting documentation demonstrating a violation; and any 20 additional information requested by the auditor or pursuant to rules issued by the auditor. Employers 21 shall be subject to penalties and other consequences pursuant to this article for any actual 22 violation(s) that occurred within one year of the date a credible complaint was first and timely 23 submitted to the auditor pursuant to this Section 58-16(d) and within three years of the date an 24 investigation of an employer by the auditor (not limited to a specific complaint) is initiated following 25 the earlier of receipt of a credible worker complaint concerning a specific employer by the auditor, 26 referral of a complaint from the State of Colorado or any agency thereof, referral of a complaint from 27 a city agency specifically authorized to receive complaints made pursuant to this article, or filing of 28 a private right of action by a worker against an employer pursuant to this article. At any time, the 29 auditor may refer a worker complaint to an appropriate state or federal agency to coordinate 30 resources with respect to such complaint or otherwise assist a worker alleging a violation of this 31 article or other law.

32 (e) Third party complaints. Subject to any rules and regulations that may be issued by the 33 auditor, any person or entity may submit a complaint of a violation of this article to the auditor. The

1 burden of demonstrating to the auditor's satisfaction that a violation has occurred rests with the 2 person or entity making the complaint and shall be demonstrated by a preponderance of the 3 evidence. Any non-worker complaint shall be made in writing to the auditor and shall include all 4 information relied upon by such person or entity. The auditor shall prioritize complaints received 5 pursuant to rules established by the auditor and may investigate any credible complaints. For any 6 credible complaint investigated by the auditor, the auditor shall notify any employer alleged to have 7 violated this article of any credible complaint, and shall provide a summary of findings regarding any 8 such complaint to both the complainant (unless the complaint was filed anonymously) and the 9 employer. Any determination by the auditor pursuant to this article is reviewable by the complained-10 of party, pursuant to Section 58-16(h). Any complaint must be submitted to the auditor within one 11 year of the date an employer was alleged to have violated the requirements of this article, and shall 12 include: a detailed statement of the employer's alleged violation of the requirements of this article, 13 including readily available supporting documentation demonstrating a violation; and any additional 14 information requested by the auditor or pursuant to rules issued by the auditor. Employers shall be 15 subject to penalties and other consequences pursuant to this article for any actual violation(s) that 16 occurred within one year of the date a credible third-party complaint was first and timely submitted 17 to the auditor pursuant to this Section 58-16(e) and within three years of the date an investigation of 18 an employer by the auditor (not limited to a specific complaint) is initiated following receipt of a 19 credible third-party complaint concerning a specific employer by the auditor. At any time, the auditor 20 may refer a third-party complaint to an appropriate state or federal agency to coordinate resources 21 with respect to such complaint or otherwise secure assistance for persons or entities alleging a 22 violation of this article or other law.

23 (f) Investigations in the absence of a complaint. On and after January 1, 2022, the auditor may 24 utilize data collected and received concerning non-compliance with this article to investigate and 25 enforce the terms of this article against employers and industries without issuance of a prior credible 26 complaint consistent with rules established by the auditor and as follows:

27 (1) Prior to an investigation absent a credible complaint, the auditor must determine that based 28 on available information a reasonable basis exists for a belief that a violation of this article has 29 occurred or will occur due to any or all of the following:

30 i. The owner or partial owner of a legal entity has violated the terms of this article with respect 31 to another entity with common ownership interests;

1           ii. A pattern and practice, including but not limited to receipt of multiple credible complaints 2 filed against a particular industry, demonstrates an increased likelihood that certain workers within 3 an industry are regularly not paid wages as required by this article;

4           iii. The auditor receives credible information from a state or federal agency that demonstrates 5 an increased likelihood that a particular employer or industry has failed to comply with the terms of 6 this article; or

7           iv. The auditor, relying upon data collected or received by the city, establishes a reasonable 8 basis to conclude that a particular employer or industry is likely to have failed to comply with the 9 terms of this article.

10          (g) Retaliation strictly prohibited. No employer shall interfere with, restrain, deny, assist another 11 person or entity, or attempt to deny the exercise of any right protected under this article. Any 12 attempted or actual retaliation shall be regulated as follows:

13          (1) No employer or any other person shall take any adverse action against any person because 14 the person has exercised in good faith rights described in this article. Such rights include, 15 but are not limited to: the right to file and pursue a private cause of action alleging a violation 16 of this article; the right to make inquiries about rights protected under this article; the right to 17 inform an employer, a union or similar organization, and/or the person’s legal counsel or any 18 other person about an alleged violation of this article; the right to file a written complaint with 19 the auditor; the right to cooperate with the auditor in any investigations pursuant to this 20 article; the right to testify in a proceeding related to an investigation pursuant to this article; 21 the right to refuse to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of city, state, or 22 federal law; and the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful pursuant to 23 this article.

24          (2) No employer or any other person shall communicate to a person exercising rights protected 25 under this article, directly or indirectly, the willingness to inform a government employee that 26 the person is not lawfully in the United States, or to report, or to make an implied or express 27 assertion of a willingness to report, suspected citizenship or immigration status of a worker 28 or a family member of the worker to a federal, state, or local agency because the worker has 29 exercised a right pursuant to this article.

30          (3) It shall be a rebuttable presumption of retaliation if an employer or any other entity or person 31 takes an adverse action against a person within 90 days of the person’s exercise of rights 32 protected in this article. However, in the case of seasonal work that ended before the close 33 of a 90-day period, the presumption also applies if the employer or other person or entity

1 fails to rehire a former worker at the next opportunity for work in the same position. The 2 employer may rebut this presumption with clear and convincing evidence that the adverse 3 action was taken for a lawful purpose.

- 4 (4) Proof of retaliation shall be sufficient upon a showing that an employer or any other person 5 or entity has taken an adverse action against a person and the person's exercise of rights 6 protected in this article was a motivating factor in the adverse action, unless the employer 7 can prove by clear and convincing evidence that the action would have been taken in the 8 absence of such protected activity.

9 (h) City-initiated enforcement; appeals. Any determination of the auditor related to the payment 10 of the Denver minimum wage and an employer's strict adherence to the requirements of this article 11 including, but not limited to, determinations of worker status, determinations of underpayment or 12 misreporting, and the imposition of penalties pursuant to this article shall be reviewable as follows:

- 13 (1) Any employer who disputes any determination made by or on behalf of the city pursuant to 14 the authority of the auditor, which determination adversely affects such employer, may 15 petition the auditor for a hearing concerning such determination no later than thirty (30) days 16 after having been notified of any such determination. Compliance by an employer with the 17 provisions of this Section 58-16(h)(1) shall be a jurisdictional prerequisite to appeal any 18 determination made by the auditor pursuant to this article, and failure of compliance shall 19 forever bar any such appeal. The foregoing in no way shall preclude or limit a worker from 20 initiating a private cause of action pursuant to this article.
- 21 (2) The auditor shall designate as a hearing officer a person retained by the city for appeal 22 purposes.
- 23 (3) The petition for a hearing shall be in writing, and the facts and figures submitted shall be 24 submitted under oath or affirmation either in writing or orally at a hearing scheduled by the 25 hearing officer. The hearing, if any, shall take place in the city, and notice thereof and the 26 proceedings shall otherwise be in accordance with rules and regulations issued by the 27 auditor. The petitioner shall bear the burden of proof, and the standard of proof shall conform 28 with that in civil, nonjury cases in state district court.
- 29 (4) The designated hearing officer may hold hearings pursuant to this article, subpoena 30 witnesses and compel their attendance, administer oaths and take the testimony of any 31 person under oath and compel witnesses to produce for examination books and papers 32 related to the subject matter of the appeal.

1 (5) Following a hearing, the hearing officer shall make a final determination. Such final 2 determination shall be considered a final order and may be reviewed under Rule 106(a)(4) 3 of the state rules of civil procedure by the employer or by the city. A request for 4 reconsideration of the determination may be made if filed in writing with the hearing officer 5 within fifteen (15) days of the date of a final determination, in which case the hearing officer 6 shall review the record of the proceedings, and the determination shall be considered a final 7 order upon the date the hearing officer rules on the request for reconsideration.

8 (6) The district court of the second judicial district of the State of Colorado shall have original 9 jurisdiction in proceedings to review all questions of law and fact determined by the hearing 10 officer by order or writ under Rule 106(a)(4) of the state rules of civil procedure.

11 (i) Recordkeeping requirements and inspection. All employers shall retain sufficient payroll 12 records concerning work performed for a period of at least three years. After a worker or third-party 13 complaint determined credible by the auditor has been received, referral of a complaint from the 14 State of Colorado or any agency thereof, referral of a complaint from a city agency specifically 15 authorized to receive complaints made pursuant to this article, pursuant to an investigation in 16 accordance with Section 58-16(f), or a private right of action has been initiated by a worker against 17 an employer pursuant to this article, the employer shall promptly allow the auditor access to such 18 records at a reasonable time during normal business hours to review and assess employer's 19 compliance with the requirements of this article. The auditor's review of an employer's records 20 following receipt of a credible worker or third-party complaint, referral of a complaint from the State 21 of Colorado or any agency thereof, referral of a complaint from a city agency specifically authorized 22 to receive complaints made pursuant to this article, pursuant to an investigation in accordance with 23 Section 58-16(f), or initiation of a private right of action shall not be limited to workers who have filed
24 complaints. Should an employer not maintain or retain adequate records documenting the manner 25 and amount of wages paid for work performed pursuant to this article, or not allow the auditor 26 reasonable access to such records within thirty (30) days of an auditor request, there shall be a 27 presumption, rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, that the employer violated this article for 28 the periods and for each worker for whom adequate records were not retained or access to such 29 records was not timely provided.

30 (j) Private right of action, authorization and scope. Within three (3) years of an alleged violation 31 of this article, any aggrieved party may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against 32 an employer alleged to have violated this article, and, upon prevailing, shall be entitled to such legal 33 and equitable relief as may be appropriate to fully remedy the violation including, without limitation:

1 the payment of any wages unlawfully withheld and any unpaid overtime based on those wages 2 (including amounts that accrued after the filing of the civil action), interest on unpaid wages and 3 overtime compensation at a rate of 12 percent per annum from the date such wages were first due, 4 the payment of an additional sum as a penalty in the amount of $100 to each worker whose rights 5 under this article were violated for each day that the violation occurred or continued, liquidated 6 damages in an amount equal up to three times the amount of unpaid wages and overtime 7 compensation in connection with such wages, reinstatement of employment (if applicable) and/or 8 other injunctive relief, and shall be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs. Nothing in this 9 Section 58-16(j) shall be interpreted as restricting, precluding, or otherwise limiting a separate or 10 concurrent investigation by the auditor of an alleged violation of this article pursuant to city code.
11 Jeopardy shall not attach as a result of any administrative or civil enforcement action initiated 12 pursuant to this article.

13 Section 2. A new Chapter 58 - Wages, Article II. – Minimum Wage, Section 58-17. of the 14 Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be added and read as follows:

15 Sec. 58-17. – Enforcement, penalties and costs.

16 (a) Enforcement.

17 (1) Following notification of a worker or third-party complaint determined credible by the auditor, 18 a complaint referred to the auditor in accordance with this article, or pursuant to an 19 investigation in accordance with Section 58-16(f), an employer shall furnish to the auditor, 20 upon the auditor's request, a true and correct certified copy of the payroll records of all 21 workers in accordance with the terms of this article. Such payroll records shall reflect the 22 entire period of record keeping required by this article, and include information documenting 23 the number of hours worked by each worker, the hourly wage paid such workers, any 24 deductions made from worker wages including but not limited to any tax withholdings, and 25 the net amount of wages received by any such worker.

26 (2) Payroll records produced pursuant to Section 58-17(a)(1) shall be accompanied by a sworn 27 statement of the employer that records provided are a true and correct copy of the requested 28 payroll records pursuant to this article, that payments were made to workers as set forth in 29 the payroll records, that no deductions were made other than those described in such 30 records, and that any worker identified in a complaint and any other workers for whom the 31 auditor has requested the production of records have been paid at least the Denver minimum 32 wage for all work or a detailed description of all instances and ways in which the foregoing 33 requirements were not fully satisfied and all explanations therefore.

1 (3) Employers shall post in a place which is prominent and easily accessible to workers an 2 auditor-approved notice concerning the Denver minimum wage to be paid to workers, and 3 that complaints related to any alleged violations may be submitted to the auditor. Employers
4 shall display the posting in English and Spanish. If display of a physical notice is not feasible, 5 including situations when a worker does not have a regular workplace or job site, employers 6 may provide the required information on an individual basis, in a worker's primary language, 7 in a physical or electronic form that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.

8 (4) The auditor is authorized to enforce findings and orders made pursuant to this article and 9 collect any and all assessed and unpaid penalties and other amounts from employers who 10 violate any of the terms of this article either informally, or by action initiated in state district 11 court.

12 (b) Penalties. Any employer subject to the requirements of this article shall as a penalty pay to 13 the city an amount as set forth below for each worker for each day they are paid less than the Denver 14 minimum wage for the performance of work.

15 (1) The amount of the penalty shall be determined by the auditor based on consideration of both 16 of the following:

17 a. Whether the failure of the employer to pay the correct wage rate was a good faith mistake 18 and, if so, the error was corrected within thirty (30) days of the date it was brought to the 19 attention of the employer.

20 b. Whether the employer has previously failed to satisfy the requirements of this article.

21 (2) An employer's penalty shall be up to fifty dollars ($50.00) for each day, or portion thereof, 22 for each worker paid less than the Denver minimum wage rate for work, unless the failure of 23 the employer to ensure payment of the Denver minimum wage rate was a good faith mistake, 24 the employer has not previously failed to timely pay a worker the Denver minimum wage 25 (regardless of whether a penalty was assessed), and the underpayment was paid in full 26 within thirty (30) days of the date it was brought to the attention of the employer in writing by 27 the worker or the auditor.

28 (3) An employer's penalty shall be an amount not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) 29 and not greater than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) for a violation, plus an 30 amount not less than ten ($10) and not greater than seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for each 31 day, or portion thereof, for each worker paid less than the Denver minimum wage rate for 32 work, if the employer has been assessed a penalty, but not more than two (2) other penalties, 33 within the previous three (3) years of the date of the complaint or notice of an investigation

1 is provided to employer for failure to comply with the terms of this article, unless all such 2 penalties were subsequently withdrawn or overturned during the same three (3) year period
3 pursuant to this article.

4 (4) An employer's penalty shall be an amount not less than two thousand five hundred dollars 5 ($2,500.00) and not greater than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for a violation, plus an 6 amount not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) and not greater than one hundred dollars
7 ($100.00) for each day, or portion thereof, for each worker paid less than the Denver 8 minimum wage rate for work, if the employer has been assessed three (3) or more other 9 penalties within the previous three (3) years of the date of the complaint or notice of an 10 investigation is provided to employer for failure to comply with the terms of this article, unless 11 any such penalties were subsequently withdrawn or reversed resulting in two (2) or fewer 12 penalties during the same three (3) year period pursuant to this article.

13 (5) An employer's penalty shall be up to one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each instance in 14 which any employer fails to furnish the auditor a complete and certified payroll for any worker 15 filing a complaint against employer pursuant to this article, unless the failure of the employer 16 to furnish the auditor a complete and certified payroll was a good faith mistake and, if so, 17 the error was corrected within ten (10) days of the date the auditor notifies employer of such 18 failure. This penalty shall be imposed in conjunction with penalties imposed under Section 19 58-17(b)(2)-(4), and shall apply whether or not the work was performed by worker directly 20 for an employer or for another person or entity on the employer's behalf except as described 21 in 58-18(c).

22 (6) An employer's penalty shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each incident of false 23 reporting in connection with a certified payroll not corrected within ten (10) days of the date 24 the auditor notifies the employer of such report. A certified payroll shall be determined to be 25 a false report when information related to hours worked or wages paid reported on a certified 26 payroll is not identical to supportive documentation, including payments issued to workers, 27 timecards maintained by employer, invoices for work performed issued to other persons or 28 entities, and tax documents. This penalty shall be imposed in conjunction with penalties 29 imposed under Section 58-17(b)(2)-(5).

30 (7) An employer's penalty shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for each violation of Section 31 58-16(g). This penalty shall be imposed in conjunction with penalties imposed under Section 32 58-17(b)(2)-(6).

- 1 (8) An employer's penalty shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each violation should 2 an employer be found by the auditor to have violated any obligation of employer described 3 in this article and not otherwise described in Section 58-17(b)(2)-(7).
- 4 (9) An employer who is found by the auditor pursuant to this article to have failed to ensure 5 payment of the Denver minimum wage to a worker for work shall, within thirty (30) days of 6 notice of a violation from the auditor, or if applicable, thirty (30) days from any final order 7 pursuant to Section 58-16(h), attempt in good faith to locate and pay any such worker all 8 wages required pursuant to this article. Failure by any employer to attempt in good faith to 9 locate and ensure payment of any underpaid worker in compliance with the terms of this 10 Section 58-17(b)(9) shall for any underpayment to a worker greater than fifty dollars ($50.00)
11 result in a penalty of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for each such violation. If an employer 12 is able to adequately document to auditor its good faith efforts to locate and timely pay a 13 worker all wages owed within forty five (45) days from any final order pursuant to Section 14 58-16(h) it shall not be subject to further penalty if it is unable to reasonably locate or pay a 15 worker all Denver minimum wages owed and strictly complies with Section 58-17(b)(10)- 16 (14). Any finding or penalty for failure to timely pay a worker, or attempt in good faith to 17 locate and timely pay a worker amounts owed pursuant to this Section 58-17(b)(9) shall be 18 subject to review pursuant to Section 58-16(h).
- 19 (10) Any employer who is found by a final order to have failed to pay a worker or workers all 20 amounts owed pursuant to this article and who is unable to timely locate and pay any amount 21 owed to a worker may submit to the auditor, for each worker to whom wages are due, a 22 check payable to that worker or to the City of Denver in a manner that is negotiable by either 23 the worker or the city. Each such check shall be for the amount of the difference between 24 wages owed a worker pursuant to this article and the amount actually paid to that worker.
- 25 (11) Any check submitted pursuant to Section 58-17(b)(10) shall be negotiated by the city and 26 the proceeds deposited in the auditor's unclaimed minimum wage special trust fund.
27 Nothing in Section 58-17(b)(10)-(14) shall be construed to lessen an employer's 28 responsibility to attempt in good faith to locate and pay all workers all wages due pursuant 29 to this article.
- 30 (12) Any valid, verified claim by a worker for payment from the auditor's unclaimed minimum 31 wage special trust fund must be made prior to three (3) years after the date of the most 32 recent underpayment of wages by employer to the worker to whom such wages were due.
33 After such date, the city shall no longer be liable for payment. The city, as trustee, shall pay

1 such claimant only the amount of the check concerning such claimant that is actually 2 negotiated pursuant to Section 58-17(b)(11), regardless of any dispute as to any additional 3 amount of wages owed by an employer to the claimant. No interest shall be paid by city on 4 any funds received or disbursed pursuant to Section 58-17(b)(10)-(14).

5 (13) On the last working day of each calendar month, the amount of any claim for which the city
6 is no longer liable pursuant to Section 58-17(b)(12) shall be credited to the general fund, 7 except as otherwise required by law.

8 (14) The auditor shall maintain a list of all unclaimed, city-negotiated minimum wage checks 9 received. Such list shall be updated monthly, and shall be available for inspection at the 10 office of the auditor.

11 (c) Costs and attorney fees. Any employer found to have violated the terms of this article shall 12 in addition to any assessed penalties pay to the city an amount equal to city's reasonable attorney 13 fees and costs in connection with the applicable complaint or investigation.

14 Section 4. A new Chapter 58 - Wages, Article II. – Minimum Wage, Section 58-18. of the 15 Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be added and read as follows:

16 Sec. 58-18. – Miscellaneous.

17 (a) Workers; intent. The intent of this article is to ensure the payment of at least the Denver
18 minimum wage to as many workers as possible in accordance with limitations imposed by Colorado 19 law. It is not the intent of this article to apply the Denver minimum wage to work performed by 20 independent contractors, or reduce any differing wage requirements established by federal or state 21 law or that arise from or in connection with federal or state funding. Any greater wage requirements 22 shall be controlling in the event of a conflict between a federal or state wage requirement and the 23 requirements of this article.

24 (b) Application of this article to prevailing wage, city minimum wage and living wage. Nothing in 25 this article shall be deemed to lessen any obligations of employers to comply with the Denver 26 Revised Municipal Code concerning payment of prevailing wage, the city minimum wage and/or 27 living wage to workers. Should a prevailing wage, city minimum wage or living wage requirement 28 be greater than the Denver minimum wage requirement, the greater wage rate shall be paid. If the 29 Denver minimum wage requires payment of a higher wage rate than an applicable prevailing wage, 30 city minimum wage or living wage requirement for work, the Denver minimum wage shall be paid to 31 any worker for such work.

32 (c) Responsibility of employer. An employer may engage agents, subcontractors, individuals 33 and other entities to perform work on the employer's behalf. Each employer shall be solely

1 responsible for ensuring payment of the Denver minimum wage to any and all agents and/or persons 2 performing work on an individual employer's behalf for purposes of compliance with this article.
3 Employers may seek indemnification or recovery from third parties for penalties an employer incurs
4 for failure to comply with the requirements of this article. However, any such rights shall in no way 5 excuse an employer from taking whatever steps are necessary to ensure compliance with this article 6 by all persons engaging in work on behalf of or for the benefit of an employer, nor serve as a basis 7 for an employer to avoid payment of any monetary penalties or occurrence of other consequences 8 for violation(s) of this article. Expressly excluded from the requirements of this Section 58-18(c) is 9 work performed on behalf of an employer that is an individual person and that is exclusively limited 10 to work performed for home improvement purposes by another entity or person that qualifies as an 11 employer pursuant to this article.

12 (d) Data collection and analysis. The auditor shall track complaints and investigations during 13 each calendar year, beginning January 1, 2020, and by March 31 of the following year issue a written 14 report to City Council reporting on enforcement metrics and assessing the efficacy of this article to 15 ensure full payment of the Denver minimum wage for work performed and also to make 16 recommendations respecting any changes to this article the auditor believes necessary to promote 17 full and prompt payment of the Denver minimum wage to workers.

22 dependent on being gainfully employed.

23 "Work" shall mean any services performed on behalf of or for the benefit of an employer

32 (e) The provisions of this article are declared to be separate and severable. If any clause, 33 sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, subsection or portion of this article, or the application

1 thereof to any employer, person, entity or circumstance is preempted or otherwise prohibited by 2 federal or state law or is held to be invalid, it shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this 3 article, or the validity of its application to other persons or circumstances.
