5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed:

The amendment seeks to amend Sec. 18-95(b) to set the salary of the elected District Attorney, effective January 2021 through January 2024. Pursuant to the DRMC, compensation reviews must occur during the calendar year immediately preceding the expiration of the current term.

The Denver District Attorney seeks by this ordinance to set her/his salary for the next four-year term beginning January 2021 accordingly; the District Attorney’s salary will remain at the current level of $228,478 with no increase for year 2021. The District Attorney requests a 1% increase in year 2022 and 3% pay increases for years 2023 and 2024. If merit increases for city employees remain frozen and are not reinstated in years 2022 and 2023, the District Attorney will forgo the pay increase for those years.
