To Whom it may concern;

I am a first generation native to Colorado. I was raised in the Five Points area of lower downtown Denver. I am excited to say, as of this date, I am 68 years of age. My interest is volunteering to help find a solution to the concerns of our Denver Community Corrections dilemma.

1973 - 2006

Retired

I was blessed to serve the City and County of Denver as a Denver Police Officer. My most gratifying assignment was introducing the Crisis Intervention Team to Denver and other cities and departments throughout the state. CIT is a 40 hour training modeled after the Memphis Tennessee Police Department. I supervised Law-enforcement and Mental Health teams along with other aspects of the community to teach and promote safety.

2009 - 2013:

Retired

At the appointment of Governor Ritter, I had the pleasure of serving as Vice Chairman on the Colorado board of parole.

2016 - present:

At the appointment of Mayor Michael Hancock, I am a citizen volunteer on the Denver Community Correction Board.

Education:

Graduated Denver's Manuel High School

Graduate of Northwestern University Center for Public Safety

- Restructured the management teams of the Epicurean Culinary Group's two largest venues, INVESCO Field and Denver Center for the Performing Arts. Acted as special management consultant to Chief Operating Officer to establish a positive corporate culture and increase individual and team productivity.

Community Partnerships and Outreach

- Recognized by the White House, Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs, and the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans for developing key coalitions between City, State, Federal, and Private organizations which provide seamless and rapid service delivery including education, employment, behavioral health care, primary health care, benefits, and social support.
- Selected by Governor Hickenlooper to represent DHS on Colorado Serves, a partnership of government and non-profit organizations to lead a comprehensive, community-based effort focused on connecting existing networks of supportive-services and building coalitions to achieve organizational goals through increased coordination.
- Served as DHS ambassador in the community, creating key innovative and strategic partnerships, soliciting customer and community feedback, while continuously advancing program development and strategic direction.
- As a member of the DHS Senior Leadership Team, managed division operations in financial services, contracting, legal, human resources, and legislative affairs to ensure security and integrity of programs and services.

Program & Budget Management

- Directed and supported the development of the CORE division budget, allocating nearly $8 million in personnel and operational priorities and led multiple teams to develop innovative and creative solutions to meet customer needs.
- Established program outcomes, adapted performance criteria based on community and customer need, labor market information and criteria, and developed, managed and monitored over $1.5 million in Federal budget allocations annually, in addition to up to $40K in State Grants to support program objectives.
- Directed program design, county policy, and procedures for the CORE division to focus on long-term outcomes of employment retention and self-sufficiency.
- Utilized best practices to support future development of sustainable outcomes for the Denver Employment First program in collaboration with State and Federal regulators to meet requirements for performance and programming.
- Met quarterly performance reporting requirements, including quantitative and qualitative data. Conducted annual longitudinal studies to illustrate long-term economic impact of program outcomes.

Legislative/Policy Development

- Served as subject-matter-expert on veteran-related issues to Denver's Road Home Commission to End Homelessness, the Governor's Commission on Homelessness, the Colorado Board of Veterans Affairs, and US Congressional offices of Senators Bennet and Udall and Representatives Perlmutter, DeGette, and Coffman.
- Led policy change by being one of the first five counties in Colorado to change the operating model of the Employment First Program and supporting the change management process of other Colorado counties adopting the program model two years post-implementation in Denver County.
- Served on Senior Leadership Team, responsible for advising, recommending and developing strategic policy and legislative goals for the department.
- Served as the Human Services representative on the Denver County Community Corrections Board, advising County leadership on the evolution of local policies impacting systems and services for justice-involved community members.

- As an intern with the Colorado Cross Disability Coalition, conducted research regarding history of Civil Rights legislation for persons with disabilities, lobbied legislators for organizationally driven legislation, conducted community outreach, and developed member-driven legislative outreach project.

Communication

- Worked with DHS communications team to create program marketing materials and develop on-line presence through DHS website and social media.
- Provided clear, consistent and compelling presentations on DHS programs and services to internal and external community partners and represented DHS in print media and local television spots.
- Expert communicator and public speaker selected to represent the City and the Department for local and National audiences in social and professional settings:
 - National Alliance on Mental Illness July 2016
 - National Coalition for Homeless Veterans May 2012-2015
 - Women Veterans of Colorado (Keynote 2014) September 2011-14
 - White House Champions of Change March 2014
