Scope of work:

Contractor will continue to develop funding, selection, and management practices for a $600,000 fund (“mini projects fund”) that reimburses community partners for projects that combat isolation, loneliness, and disengagement from critical services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) in Denver. Because inclusion is an essential aspect of this project, the contractor will consider and incorporate community engagement processes in the delivery of their work. This includes facilitating work through an equity lens and active inclusion of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities throughout fund management processes.

Community partners eligible to participate as subcontractors with the mini project fund include, but are not limited to, State-approved I/DD service providers, local Denver businesses, and otherwise qualified entrepreneurs or professionals. Reimbursement for individual projects through the mini projects fund is limited to a maximum of $20,000 per project, allowing for at least 30 potential projects to be funded throughout the contract term. Contractor should ensure project selection processes include criteria that reasonably assure selected community partners can provide quality services to people with I/DD and which center the voices and needs of the community in their proposed project as well as other related work.

Was this contractor selected by competitive process? Yes  If not, why not?
