Type and Scope of services to be performed:

La Raza Services, Inc. Has a solid reputation for providing quality mental and behavioral health services to youth in Denver. This contract is designed to support the work that is critically needed in Denver neighborhoods and communities that are experiencing high rates of violence.

This funding will support the expansion of Servicios' behavioral health services targeting youth ages 11-25. Through this project, the Behavioral Health department will create and customize programming and establish new staff positions, including a Youth Services Manager, a Youth Prevention Coordinator, Youth Engagement Specialists, and one additional Behavioral Health Therapist. The goal is to connect with youth in high need areas and promote connection, mental wellness, leadership, and identity development. Through the facilitation of direct services and wrap-around support identified in the scope of work, Servicios believes that the goals will be accomplished while increasing access to culturally responsive and linguistically specific services across our communities. All programming will include being connected to behavioral health services including individual and family therapy, substance misuse services, other Servicios program resources as well as connection to resources from partner organizations.
