Contract Control Number: FINAN-202265028

Vendor/Contractor Name (including any "DBA"): Denver Urban Renewal Authority (DURA)

Type and Scope of services to be performed:

This ordinance approves a Cooperation Agreement between the City and County of Denver and the Denver Urban Renewal Authority ("DURA") for the property and sales tax increment area within the proposed 27th and Larimer Urban Redevelopment Area ("Area"). The Area is approximately 4.99 acres bounded by Larimer Street, 27th Street, Lawrence Street and 26th Street, and a smaller portion of the Area is located south of 26th Street along the northeast side of the 2500 block of Larimer Street.

DURA, in coordination with the City's Department of Finance and Department of Community Planning and Development, is seeking to establish the Area to support its redevelopment through the approval of the 27th and Larimer Urban Redevelopment Plan (the "Plan"). Staff of the City and DURA have agreed to the Plan and the Cooperation Agreement for the creation of the Area and the use of sales and property tax increment financing by DURA, subject to City Council approval.

The Cooperation Agreement established the parameters for property and sales tax increment financing for the purpose of financing projects for the benefit of certain property located within the Area following approval by City Council.

The incremental property and sales taxes will be utilized to reimburse eligible costs incurred in the redevelopment of the 27th and Larimer Urban Redevelopment Area.
