Type and Scope of services to be performed:

programs for individuals and families in Denver who are experiencing housing instability or homelessness due to the COVID-19 pandemic and related economic impacts.

- The Salvation Army's Housing Now program will provide ESG-CV Homeless Prevention and Rapid Rehousing Activities to 240 unduplicated clients.
- The Salvation Army will provide Homeless Prevention and Rapid Rehousing services to individuals and families in Denver who are experiencing housing instability resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic and related economic impacts.
- The Salvation Army will provide Rapid Rehousing to individuals or families living in shelters or in places not meant for human habitation move as quickly as possible into permanent housing and achieve stability in that housing.
- Housing Now serves homeless families (with children under 18 years old) in the greater Denver region by providing progressive case management at office locations in Denver and Aurora or in client homes.
- Case managers work with participants on setting financial priorities and creating budgets and may refer them to Mpowered for additional financial management support. When clients in the program struggle to pay rent, the case manager utilizes diversion techniques to empower clients to employ newly learned housing maintenance strategies and to use their own resources to resolve problems.
- Families and individuals are granted varied assistance with lease application fees, security deposits and/or rent, utilities and household essentials. Through customized housing-focused case management and life skills classes, households pay an increasing portion of their rent until assistance is no longer needed.
