Type and Scope of services to be performed:

Denver Public Safety Youth Programs was awarded the Colorado Youth Detention Continuum grant to perform detention screening and pre-trial release services for youth in the 2nd Judicial District. This is a five-year grant which renews annually, and this request is to increase funding for the 2023 fiscal year. The additional funding comes from a Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) fund provided by the state. For the 2nd JD, COLA funds are used to increase services such as therapeutic support, trauma focused behavioral health, and family therapy for youth referred to Pretrial. The 2nd Judicial District Juvenile Services Planning Committee serves as the advisory body for the program and has approved the extension of the original contract to a sixth year.
