Type and Scope of services to be performed:

Funding from HFDC will provide immediate hunger relief to youth and families living in Globeville and Elyria-Swansea, while supporting long-term, community-led solutions to food justice. Families are able to access a no-cost or low-cost food box depending on their needs and connect with programming related to growing and cooking healthy food. Importantly, we are also providing SNAP / WIC outreach and enrollment support to ensure long-term food access.
