Contract Control Number: 201736128-00

Vendor/Contractor Name (including any "DBA"): AECOM Technical Services, Inc

Type and Scope of services to be performed:

The request to issue an RFP for the selection and award of multiple On-Call Communications, Engineering, and Design firms for use in the design, project management, technical documentation, software, and systems support. This will be for new and ongoing projects related to technical systems at Denver International Airport (DEN) that were originally submitted in August 2017.

We are requesting two contracts to be awarded to encourage competitive pricing. AECOM

Technical Services, Inc., is the incumbent and has demonstrated for more than a decade, their ability to provide consulting services for DEN and Business Technologies. AECOM Technical Services, Inc., provides Airport experience, technical expertise, and professional certification. AECOM Technical Services, Inc., also brings with them the expertise of having been the designer of record for our access control, radio, and closed-circuit television (CCTV) systems. The contract value for AECOM Technical Services, Inc., is based on the services and expertise the company can provide to DEN. AECOM Technical Services, Inc., is one of the largest engineering firms in the world, providing a global network of experts for DEN. AECOM Technical Services, Inc., is diversified in multiple markets to include the Aviation industry. We are encouraging competitiveness by having two (2) contracts. In the past, Business Technologies only had AECOM Technical Services, Inc., providing these services.

This on-call contract mechanism allows the Business Technologies Division to properly provide technical resources that include specialized airport systems as needed. The Consultant will be required to maintain professional certifications in areas to allow for proper design and permitting activities where required.
