Contract Control Number: SOCSV-2021596285-00

Vendor/Contractor Name (including any "DBA"): Rocky Mountain Human Services

Type and Scope of services to be performed:

START is a community-based tertiary care crisis intervention system for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) with mental/behavioral health needs (IDD/MH) and their families or caregivers. A comprehensive model, START optimizes independence, treatment, and community living for persons with IDD/MH ages 6 and up.

Contractor will develop a START program in Denver and is expected to become START certified over a 3-year period, during which time the team will provide direct services to Denver residents with IDD/MH and their systems of care, as Contractor pursues full certification. Certification will be under the training and consultation of University System of New Hampshire, Institute on Disability, through its Center for START Services.
