Vendor/Contractor Name (including any "DBA"): Air Canada

Type and Scope of services to be performed: Air Canada qualifies for an air service incentive for their new service to Vancouver (service initiation May 18, 2017). As a new international destination service by Air Canada from Denver, flights to Vancouver qualify for a waiver of fees, applied as credits, to operate at Denver International Airport for the first year of this service. The maximum amount of the credits is $1M over the two years and the exact waiver amount is based on the number of passengers carried ($20 of waiver per enplaned passenger). This incentivizes Air Canada to carry as many passengers as possible on the flight.
