Contract Control Number: ENVHL- 202055217-00/ ENVHL-202264097

Vendor/Contractor Name (including any “DBA”): Metro Caring

Type and Scope of services to be performed:

Metro Caring will continue their programs which provides fresh, healthy food with their Fresh Foods Market, and their food-based programming, including Kidz in the Kitchen, a hands-on education in nutrition, cooking, home economics, kitchen gardening, and healthy eating. Metro Caring also will continue to meet the needs of the community as they express them, including language translation in an effort to continue their pursuit of language justice.

This agreement is being amended for a third and final time for that last year of the agreement. There is another agreement before council from Metro Caring but because the scopes of work are different, and for billing purposes, the agreements are separate.

This agreement, Metro Caring 01 provides fresh food, food education and community engagement work that focuses on the entire family. Metro Caring 03 has a different scope of work, with food education primarily focused on early childhood, ages 0-5.
