RINO Arts District

Type and Scope of services to be performed:

Cooperative Agreement Phase 1 - EEB Building

- In response to a Request for Statement of Interest in 2017, the City selected the RiNo Art District to renovate, reconstruct, operate, occupy, manage, and maintain the EEB Building in Arkins Court Park “for the use and benefit of the citizens of the City and the general public”.
- DPR and RiNo Art District’s goals for the buildings are to provide affordable creative space, support local artists and businesses, deliver educational programming for all ages and backgrounds, and partner with established neighborhoods and community groups to support connectivity and ensure the unique history of North Denver is celebrated in a vibrant social gathering space open to all.
- Phase One of the project opened in 2021 & includes partnerships with Denver Public Library, The Denver Zine Library, RedLine Contemporary Art Center, Alto Gallery, and Focus Points Family Resource Center to provide new public programming and use for the EEB spaces.

Cooperative Agreement Phase 2 - Interstate Building Amendment

- This amendment to the cooperative agreement reflects the integration of the Interstate Building into the RiNo Art District’s programming and operations at Arkins Court Park.
- The Interstate Building will operate as a public facility available for large, adaptive, and flexible use and activation by the community such as visual and performance art, community meetings or city outreach events, health and wellbeing classes like yoga and dance, language access classes, outdoor education and environmental learning, small business networking programs and events.
- The Interstate Building enhances a new kind of park environment, where public buildings and park space becoming a campus of activity, learning, culture, innovation, collaboration and community gathering.
- Any funds received through Interstate fees will be retained by RiNo Art District for Arkins Court Park and Buildings’ programming, management, or maintenance needs.
- Clarifies responsibilities of RiNo Art District to perform preventative and predictive maintenance and repair and annual walk throughs and inspections with appropriate DPR and City staff.
- Outlines process for RiNo Art District to hold events in the park, plaza, and/or EEB/Interstate buildings, or a combination thereof, including authorization for RiNo Art District to manage third party reservations of EEB/Interstate buildings and plaza space.
- Strengthens reporting requirements to improve long term partner management and performance metrics.
