To approve the Mayoral appointments of the following individuals to the Prosperity Denver Fund:

In 2018, Denver voters passed Initiated Ordinance 300 to create the Denver College Success Corporation (DCSC), the nonprofit that will be responsible for administration of the Denver College Affordability Fund.

As board members began to interact with stakeholders, the name Denver College Success

Corporation was confusing to scholarship providers who naturally aligned with the Ballot initiative "Prosperity Denver". The word "corporation" also implied a for profit entity, not a nonprofit. Denver College Success Corporation was also getting confused with Denver Scholarship Foundation, and it didn't accurately portray who they are and what they do.

As a result, the board of directors wanted to change the name. The Board worked with Taloma Partners, a communications firm and attorney to identify options. Ultimately, the Board voted on Prosperity Denver Fund since it connected to the original branding from the ballot initiative.

Danielle Shoots, Denver (F)(AA) to serve as an individual in or has a deep understanding of workforce development with a preference for workforce development in higher education or other educational institutions to serve for a term expiring May 1, 2023, appointed;

John Kechriotis, Denver (M)(C) to serve as an individual with legal expertise and knowledge of industry or relevant industry experience for a term expiring May 1, 2023, reappointed.
